OW UNEMPLOYED

The history of Cannon Irland is confined almost entirely to the years from 1926. Its name is a relic of the Karonna War of 1879, when a and and had to be shot out by means the State to be allowed to farm which Cannon Island could be put was for grazing goats-a concess. ion which was taken advantage of by the half-castes of Gordonia Then 52 determined men-English and Dutch-came together and degided on their future plans in connection with Cannon Island. They saw that representations to the State were unavailing, so they desided to become squatters and see what course the law would take. the island, and they set about the construction of a canal, taken out at a weir near the head of the is_ nd, and continued far down to the work had not advanced very far when the police-one man-was sent ers off the Crown land. On the first occasion the 52 mer policeman's back turned, and then reentered to finish their day's work. With so many able hands assisting in the digging of the canal progress was swift, and when the policeman paid his second official visit they were more determined than ever to to investigate and chase the intrud-

The policemen was gently, though determinedly, pulled off his horse and assisted out of his tunic. He was given a spade and shown just how an irrigation canal should be that night so that he could be condamaging the island-but, rather, improving it-and in the early morning he was allowed to depart, to report to his superiors the futility of further lone visits, and wonderwhen they said that they would
