THE WORLD AT LARGE

CANADA

CHURCH ATTENDANCE

A recent poll taken by the Canadian Press, based on a survey of church members, has shown that church members are more interested in church work than in church services.

MARIE DRESSLER'S MONEY

It appears Marie Dressler was not the wealthy woman it was thought. She was wealthy in friends, and that was all that mattered to her. Her estate is valued at less than $100,000.

HITLER'S BOOK

Adolf Hitler, the German dictator, has made a fortune out of his book "Mein Kampf," written in 1925. It has been translated into fourteen languages.

WINDOW MODELS

The casual passer-by at times of ten looks twice at window models in store windows to make sure they are not real, but in London, England, the shoppers are soon to see mannequins walking about all day long.

TWO LIVES SAVED

Some time ago at considerable cost a bronchoscope was added to the equipment of Hamilton general hospital. A bronchoscope is an ingenious device with which foreign bodies can be removed from the lungs.

THE MUSICAL NOTE

A military correspondent of the London Morning Post points out that instructions recently issued by the British War Council include the teaching of singing by units as it helps men to march well even when "fatigued."

DIPHTHERIA BATTLE

A highly feared and deadly disease a few years ago, diphtheria need not now be a cause of death in any community, observes Dr. J. G. Fitzgerald, dean of the Faculty of Medicine at the University of Toronto.

MISLEADING TITLES

The peculiarity by which picture producers give misleading names to their pictures, frequently to their own loss, is illustrated by a picture now being shown in a local theatre and known as "Broadway Bill."

THE FORGOTTEN MEN

The "Forgotten Man" is an expression which has received many definitions, many of which have been appropriate and impressive. It might well be described as the citizen who has been industrious all his life, has earned money and saved a portion of it to purchase his own little home, and provide something for the rainy days.

FORBIDDEN TO WOMEN

The women of China are forbidden to wear high-heeled shoes, but they are still trying to hang on.

Hopeful At Leave Taking — Meet Discouragement

Sir John Simon (left), British Foreign Minister, and Capt. Anthony Eden, Lord Privy Seal, talk over the arms situation with Hitler. Sir John Simon reported on his mission to the House of Commons and stated that wide divergence of views had been encountered.

"SETTING" AND "SITTING"

The Bradford Expositor editor has set himself up as an authority on agricultural phraseology. A reader inquired: "Would you please tell me which is correct, a 'setting' hen or a 'sitting' hen?"

PUBLIC 'PUBLIC' SCHOOLS

More well-to-do people in Britain send their children to the elementary schools in preference to the private schools. A healthy tendency, but there is no room in this changing, busy, modern Britain for caste privilege and the caste school.

EMBARGO ON LANG.

The protest of Viscount Leo of Parnham against the ousting of English along by the American sort is not new. It is too readily assumed that the American vernacular is more expressive than our own.

THE EMPIRE

A MUCH-GOVERNED COUNTRY New Zealand is a country in which governing and controlling bodies flourish greatly. This fact is illustrated by the number of occasions the citizen will be called upon during the coming year to cast a vote.

A FAIRBRIDGE SCHOOL FOR B.C.

The project launched only seven months ago for the extension to other parts of the Empire of the Fairbridge Farm School scheme, which has so well justified itself in Western Australia, has already borne fruit by the multiplicity of local bodies.

"NAUGHTY MARIETTA"

The pirates pour over the side of the ship on which Marietta is escaping to Louisiana from her captor, Don Carlos. The sailors cheer, and the cries and yells of the men are heard. The cannon booms, blasting the air with frightful sound. While knives flash on the pirates' heads, some of them fall with loud yells.

Victor Herbert

But Marietta seizes a burning torch. Brandishing it, she marches toward the pirates who can still hear her shouts. Calling loudly for help she dashes after her captor. She aims his knife, viciously, preparing to throw it at her captor's head. Will he stop her? Don't miss the next thrilling installment of "Naughty Marietta."
