SNUB TO MRS. WILL ROGERS PROVED COSTLY TO MILLIONAIRE

Miami, Fla., Nov. 12—George Ade the humorist, yesterday told how to be young at 70.

"Live only in the present," he said, "that's the secret."

"I caught myself reading the obituary notices yesterday before I turned to the sports page, and that's a sure sign of ossification," Ade mourned.

"But I won't let myself become a mossback and a has-been, so I keep the old bean in touch with the latest news, the latest plays, the latest movies and the latest books."

Will Rogers' death saddened Ade. "That's one fellow this country is going to miss," he commented.

"Here's a story that's never been told about Bill:

"One of those Long Island millionaires invited Bill out to his estate for a party.

Will went, and during the night was called on for a speech. He made it, and it was a knockout.

"Everyone laughed, including the millionaire. Next day Bill sent his host a bill for $500.

"The millionaire called up and protested: 'Why, Mr. Rogers, isn't there some mistake? You were a guest at my home.'

"And Bill replied: 'Oh, no, I wasn't; you got me out as an actor. If I was a guest you'd have invited Mrs. Rogers, too!"

WHICH ONE IS CORRECT

Some boys in the school were ed to define an editor. Here some of the definitions:

"An editor is a man who has words."

"An editor is somebody who not do anything himself, and somebody else does, goes and other people about it."

Another gave a more thoughtful definition, whether or not it was iginal with him: "An editor is man who has the industry of a er and the instincts of a bee."

Mr. and Mrs. MacDowell and family, made a business trip to Hamilton Saturday.

Miss Jean Hoover, spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. I. D. Hoover.

The members of our Y.P.S. are feeling very proud and justly so, for they are the winners of the beautiful trophy presented at the Rally held in Caledonia last Friday night. Although the night was none too favorable forty-seven attended from the Stone Church giving us a majority of ten over our nearest rival.

The Rally, which was attended by over two hundred was a wonderful success in every way and all who attended felt well repaid. Nine societies are represented in this district which is known as No. 2. One member from each society brought greetings and a varied program was furnished by the different organizations. Bruce Stadder spoke for our Society and the Easton brothers, accompanied at the piano by Miss Myrtle Roth, sang a duet.

Mr. David Savage, of Hamilton, the guest speaker brought a wonderful message which will be a great inspiration for us to work with renewed vigor.

The trophy, a beautiful shield, was presented by Mr. Russell White, the donator, John McBurney, our president, made a very suitable reply, thanking Mr. White for his kindness and assuring him that we would try to live up to the honor conferred upon us.

At the close of the meeting the Caledonia Society served delicious refreshments.
