The Christmas services at Wesley United Church were well attended last Sunday. In the morning the minister, Rev. W. J. Holley gave a Christmas Message "No Room in the Inn" and the choir rendered special Christmas anthems. In the evening the story of "The Other Wise Man" was given, interspersed with carol singing; lantern slides were used for the carols. The choir again presenting two fine Christmas numbers. The Sunday School Christmas concert was given in the Town Hall on Monday evening, opening with the singing of Christmas carols. Mr. John Dellar, the Superintendent, presided over a fine program presented by each class in the school, the drills and songs being interspersed with recitations, pianoforte solos and songs by individual members. After the closing number, a play entitled "Santa at the Bar of Justice." Mr. Dellar presented four Robert makes certificates for perfect attendance to members of the Wo-He-Lo Class, also a number of diplomas for the completion of the Memory Course. Santa Claus came along and dropped in to help with the distribution of candies and presents from the tree.
