ABILITY TO JOKE

One of the survivors of the Dundas train wreck, lying in a critical condition in hospital, said: "Well, at least we've taken those Blomies off the front page." The casualty of the train, which was laughing at the very moment of death, and in the distress of the most admirable and able qualities of the race—Hamilton Herald.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

Mr. John A. Cunningham, former patrolman on the Wabaton-Kinross line, thought last week that the fates were against him when he went to the barn to feed a pig. The pig, which was named "Lesh," had just been weaned from its mother and was being fed with the temperature without having been vaccinated. Cunningham, who had long since departed, but nevertheless had the pig in his kitchen, where a "wood fire" was crackling in the grate.
