Little Game

And you will go away without one last word of farewell. Or deep regret. Or knowing this day of bitter grief may break the magic spell of hours. . . . Intimately lived together. . . . You will forget the young dawns and the rain. The roads we walked and may not walk again. The words he said to me, 'Walk away.' The quiet stillness in quiet solitude. . . . Love most of all. . . . Vowing our love would glow. With over-burning, steady flame!

Officer Of W.M.S. To Retire At 68

TORONTO—Officers and members of the Dominion board of the W.M.S. missionary society of the United Church in Canada must retire when they reach the age of 68, the ninth annual meeting has decided. . . . The officers of conference branches are exempt. . . . A judicious use of flowers is urged by Quebec Tourist Bureau to make winter hotels even more attractive. Since there is nothing so restful as beds of flowers in front of and around buildings in both town and country. The same applies everywhere. . . .

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON XIII.—June 30. LIBERTY UNDER LAW (Temperance Lesson).—Romans 14: 12-21; 1 Corinthians 8: 9-13. GOLDEN TEXT.—It is good not to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor to do anything whereby thy brother stumbleth. Romans 14: 21.

THE LESSON IN ITS SETTING. TIME AND PLACE.—The Epistle to the Romans was written by the Apostle Paul approximately A.D. 60, and the First Epistle to the Corinthians about a year earlier, A.D. 55. . . .

For it is not therefore given me another any more; but judge ye my other, that no man put a stumbling block in his brother's way. What a remembrance! to eat of what he may pass unscathed through the festive parties of the ungodly, and perhaps even leave the safety of his own house! It is evil for that man who sauteh with offence. (Mark 7: 16; Acts 10: 28). To eat with offence is simply to be permitted to eat by the example of another, while one's conscience either condemns an eating or is in doubt about the righteousness of it. . . .

For if a man see that he who is eating sits at meat in an idol's temple, will not his conscience be grieved? . . . For if a man see that he who is eating sits at meat in an idol's temple, will not his conscience be grieved? . . .

For if a man see that he who is eating sits at meat in an idol's temple, will not his conscience be grieved? . . .

For if a man see that he who is eating sits at meat in an idol's temple, will not his conscience be grieved? . . .

For if a man see that he who is eating sits at meat in an idol's temple, will not his conscience be grieved? . . .

For if a man see that he who is eating sits at meat in an idol's temple, will not his conscience be grieved? . . .
