By PEARL BELLAIRS

Synopsis

At the sight of the girl, he started back, as if he had been struck. "Joan Denny," he said, "you are here. How did you get here?" "I came by car," she said, "and I found you." "Which car?" asked Lord Edward. "My car—there it is!"

smoothed her skirts over her knees, she again met that hard looking, and she felt that she understood and felt her resentment.

He slammed the door of the car on her, and she protested: "Someone will have to fetch my wrap!" "Oh, there's a coat of mine in the back," he replied, going round to his seat on the other side.

It did he really think that she was going to wear his coat instead? What a man! Nothing one said against a man! He rubbed the back of his hand and switched on the ignition and was pressing the self starter.

Line can be whitened by the use of turpentine. Make a bath of soap suds and warm water, add a small amount of turpentine and steep the fabric in the mixture. Leave for two hours or all night, then wash as usual. Spots on waxed floors can be removed by rubbing with a cloth dipped in turpentine and then polished. Borax is a most useful agent in the home, as we have pointed out before, and egg stains will come out if treated with turpentine. A little borax is soaked in cold water to which a little borax has been added.

Mr. H. B. S. — Your writing shows you are very energetic. You feel things very much. There is, however, a tendency for you to be changeable and inconsistent. This is not a bad thing, but it is a result of your own free will. You are not a person who is easily influenced by others. You are a person who is very independent. You are a person who is very self-reliant. You are a person who is very confident. You are a person who is very determined. You are a person who is very ambitious. You are a person who is very successful.
