UNITED CHURCH LEADERSHIP TRAINING SCHOOL
At a recent meeting of the Executive of the Young People's Union of the Haldimand-Norfolk Presbytery, the final arrangements for the Fall Training School of Leadership Training were completed.

Ottawa, Oct. 14.—With the voters' decision recorded another page has been written in the story of Canada's colorful parliamentary history. On a new page the 18th parliament since Confederation has come into being.
Records show that prior to this election the Conservative party had won eight elections and lost eight. The Liberals had won eight and lost nine, while a Unionist Government had one election to its credit.
When the 17th parliament dissolved the Tories held 123 seats and the Liberals 88. In addition to 29 seats scattered among other parties there were 24 seats vacant.
The total vote polled in the 1935 election was 3,898,895. The opinion of the people at that time is clearly revealed in the division of the vote:
Conservative 1,909,853
Liberal 1,714,820
Progressive 20,993
Lib.-Prog. 59,155
Labor 45,702
Independent 49,353
U. F. Alberta 60,924
Farmer 22,766
Communist 5,685
While the campaign which concluded with Monday's election was fought without the bitterness of many previous election battles it will live long in the memory of Canadian voters. Never before have so many candidates sought support, it was a field which offered a wide choice to the voter and made dependable forecasts practically an impossibility.
Montreal Verduin voters received the most perplexing ballots. No less than ten names appeared for Liberal selection. A Conservative, C.C.F., Reconstructionist, two Independent Liberals, two Independent Conservatives, one Labor-Liberal, one Veteran's party and one Verduin party candidate.
The field of 894 candidates included 242 Liberals, 232 Conservatives, 174 Reconstructionists, 118 C.C.F., 47 Social Credit. Ontario saw 310 candidates fighting for its 82 seats in the Ottawa House.
Looking back over the elections of other days it is interesting to see how the pendulum of power has swung from one party to another. Third parties, with the exception of the election of 1921 when 64 Progressives were elected, have in the past had little success.
The successes and failures of the two old parties are shown in the table below of the number of seats held by each in the various elections since Confederation.

The Unionist Government of 1917 held 153 seats to the Laurier-Liberal party's 82.
While the country centred its interest on the election Federal officials here while still keeping an eye on the campaign continued to concern themselves with matters of trade.
The Department of External Affairs received a message from Tokio which it was understood, contained an offer from the Japanese government to rescind the retaliatory tariffs against Canada if the Dominion would abolish the tariffs to which Japan takes objection. The offer was really a repetition of that previously made by Japan. British Columbia particularly continues to feel the effect of the loss of trade which the trade dispute has caused.
Pencil in government offices jotted down a maze of figures when it became apparent that members of the League of Nations would sacrifice trade with Italy in imposing economic sanctions to block her war with Ethiopia. Canada has traded with Italy under the benefit of a most-favored-nation treaty since 1922.
Last year the Dominion bought from the Italians goods valued at $2,300,000. Figures for the first five months of this year show a balance of trade in Canada's favor with $1,887,882 worth of goods sold to Italy against $1,422,284 purchased from her. Italy, it is thought,

EASTERN CLUB INVESTIGATING POSSIBILITIES
Brookville—If investigations now being conducted by the Brookville Rod & Gun Club successfully Skeet and Trap shooting by floodlight may become a popular evening pastime.
Shooting under arc lamps has already been tried in Canada and officials of the club are now going into the question of this improved form of night shooting which has been successfully launched in the States, notably at Atlantic City. White birds are used instead of black and those who have shot by floodlight prefer it to shooting by daylight.
will suffer particularly from a loss of raw materials under the imposition of sanctions. Of the goods which Canada sold her last year 47.2 per cent. were raw materials.

International Plowing Match Exceeds All Records
Four glorious days, a record attendance and the largest entry in any Plowing Match to date all factors in making the 1935 International Plowing Match and Machinery Demonstration held in the history of the Ontario Plowmen Association. Ideal weather prevailed throughout the entire Match with a slight shower on Friday morning, which cleared the air and laid the dust neatly for the final day's events. There seemed to be no lack of interest in the various tests as a result of the huge crowds that followed each class.
The Match got under way on Tuesday with the local competition being held when the associations of Brant, Waterloo, Haldimand, Lincoln, Norfolk, Saltfleet, Six Nations and North Westwold held their plowing competitions jointly on the farm of Mr. Robt. Holt. There were 109 entries in the 11 classes with 36 entries in the sod jointer class alone.
The International Match really got under way on Wednesday with 172 entries in the eight stubble classes. This creates a record for any second day of the Match with 23 more than a year ago when 149 plowmen took the field at Merryvale Farm near Toronto. There were 45 entries in each of two classes.
Sod plowing on Thursday attracted a record attendance of 40,000 by the award in the associations of former function of this kind and the largest crowd of any kind ever to have been gathered together in Haldimand county.
The Match drew to a close on Friday with championship jointer and tractor classes and the inter-county competition with three boys from each of 17 counties taking part in the tractor classes.
A monster banquet held in the Caledonia Arena when almost 1000 people sat down to dinner at one time. This banquet was addressed by the Hon. Duncan Marshall, Mr. J. Lockie Wilson, President of the O.P.A., Mr. J. A. Carroll, R. S. Colter, K.C., M.L.A., George Bethune, M.L.A., Mark Senn, M.P. and many others.
The official welcome was given by Peter Ghoyi, president for the first part of the evening and then turned the gathering over to Mr. J. A. Carroll for the presentation of prizes. The official welcome was given by Warden Robin S. Kerr on behalf of the county and Reeve Arthur G. Emerson on behalf of the Village of Caledonia.
Haldimand county plowmen scored a great many victories during the four days winning five firsts on the first day, four firsts on the second day, one first on the third day and with a team of three boys running a close second to York County in the inter-county competition on the last day. The following is a list of a few of the Haldimand prize winners:

Class 3—Sod, Plain Plow, boys under 18—
1st, Wilfred Hyland, Jarvis.
Class 4—Sod—Jointer—

Bumper Crowd at Acadian Club Dance
The Thanksgiving dance held in the Jarvis Arena on Friday night of last week under the auspices of the Acadian Club drew a bumper crowd. Martyn Yorke and his radio orchestra certainly lived up to their established reputation and were immediately prevailed upon to fill a return engagement here on Friday night of this week. We predict for them an overflow attendance as they most assuredly dish out the music satisfying to the dance hall patrons.

Knock Y.P.S. Meet
The Y.P. held their meeting in the S.S. room on Monday evening with Twenty-five present. We had a Song Service from 8 to 8:15, led by Mrs. Carter. The meeting was in charge of Mr. Harry Holland, "Literary Convener" and led by the Y. men of our society. The young men acting president, Mr. Melvin Church, opened the meeting with use of hymn 494 and also led in prayer. Mr. Jack Horne read the Scripture lesson from Matthew 16th chapter. The minutes were read by the Y. men acting secretary, Harry Leath. Literary Convener, Harry Holland and his topic as taken from our study book, namely "Our Church" very splendid and worthwhile topic. Mrs. Church gave each of the young men a hearty vote of thanks. We closed the meeting with hymn selection 461 and the benediction.

William Lyon Mackenzie King
A former protégé of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and long a student of social and industrial problems, 62-year-old Mr. King is about for the third time to step into the office of Prime Minister of Canada.
His career, regardless of the political hue of the one who passes for study it is one which is admirably designed to fit a man for the Dominion's highest office.
As a young man he studied at Toronto, Chicago and Harvard Universities. His particular interest was in labor and industrial relations and the eight years which he served as deputy minister of labor gave him a keen insight into these questions. From 1909 to 1911 he was minister of the Department in which he had served his apprenticeship.
During the war years, from 1914 to 1917, he conducted research on industrial relations under the sponsorship of the Rockefeller foundation. He is credited with facilitating commercial relations between Canada and the United States during those difficult times. It was in that period that he wrote his book "Industry and Humanity," a volume which was much discussed in the early stages of the campaign which was first prompted in 1909 when he served as a British delegate to the international opium commission in Shanghai, China. Later, in 1926, he held the office of Vice-President of the league of nations assembly.
It was at the age of thirty-four that he was first elected a member of the house of commons representing Waterloo, a riding where he was later defeated on the reciprocity issue. He attained the leadership of the Liberal party at Ottawa in 1919 and two years later became Premier.
Canada's new Premier is a Presbyterian, he holds membership in only a few clubs and spends his summers on his farm in the Gaiters district near Ottawa.
