You love the friend who just stands Perhaps there's nothing he can do-

The thing is strictly up to you;

And paths the soul must tread a Times when love cannot smooth the Nor friendship lift the heavy load.

But just to feel you have a friend Who will stand by until the end; Whose sympathy through all endures Whose warns hand-clasp is always

"God bless the friend who just stands by."

Open wide the door to him Treat him royally, my friend,

BOLDNESS It it better by a noble bold run the risk of being subject to half of the evils which we anticipate, than o remain in cowardly listlessness for

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

It helps somehow to pull you through
