Things To Think About

THE TRUTH ABOUT THE LOST LINDBERGH BABY

The United States cannot gover Itself. This is the bald reflection of the Lindbergh baby kidnapping case. The whole police organization of the he is given his freedom, he will rewho assisted in putting Capone be hind the bars are guarded night and day in mortal fear of their lives, or of being kidnapped.

But the gang leaders decided that and so it has .. Col. Lindbergh can recover his lost baby if he negotiated honorably with 'Salvy' Spitale and

To such debts has criminal law administration sank in the States. If police step one inch over a given line the baby will die. Th epolice hace been told where that line

H. H. Berscht has donated a silver Cup to the league to be competed for, thecup to win in three years.

Moved by Jas. Phillips, seconded by W. Moyer, that a vote of thanks be given to the retiring president by O. Hauser, that the meeting be now adjourned. JUVENILE LEAGUE

There was considerable discussion mong the delegates as to the form ing of a Juvenile League that an eight team league could be formed with teams from Jarvis, Haggersville, Caledonia, Fisherville, Sel-Wirk Cavuga and Dunnville, 2 teams the leagueto be divided into 2 groups and the group winners to play off.

The main expense of this league would be transportation, which would mot be very great with the league divided into two groups.

Players under 18 years of age on May 1st are eligible and no certificates or amatuer cards are necessary The clube do not need new uniforms and new balls for each game are not

So, as theex pense is very little, lets hope that some of our sportsmen will get behind this venture and help put it over.

The only way you make ball players is to start them young and when else can they play unless we have some organization like this. And who doesn't like to see good ball polayers and ball teams. So lets get together and put this over and give the younger boys a chance to
