Memorial services held in the United Church on Sunday afternoon, were largely attended. The ex-service men met at the LO.O.F. hall on Main Street and headed by the Hagersville Citizens Band, marched in a body to the church.

The most bedraggled piece of humanity is the girl in pyjamas at a picnic when it rains.

The progressive merchant today is the one who advertises. He not only keeps-up-to-date goods, but he also lets the public know about it through the medium of the local newspaper. He is in a position to sell goods cheaper than the one who advertise for the simple reason that his volume of business is greater, and his gods are newer and fresher than those of the other efellow. Buy from merchants who advertise and he assured of all round a new son awaiting him.
