VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

WE LOST 'EM

Not many years ago Jarvis had two outstanding men but didn't know it. One of them J. H. Miner, who has been Reeve of Port Dover for years, was the County of Norfolk and could have had the nomination for last Ontario election had he consented to stand.

The other, Rev. Mr. Marsh, fire speaker and astronomer, of the first class, has had splendid results at the recent eclipse, may have made a discovery that will be of very great value and his name be emblazoned on the record of those who have richly contributed to science in the study of the universe.

Each of these men illustrate practical work. They not only thought and talked, but produced the goods.

THE BATHING BEACH

Last Sunday at the bathing beach a high chilly wind spoiled most of the worthwhile pictures. We tried to get snaps of the real thing to illustrate the different causes of eye strain, but the choicest bits and bobs were covered to keep our eyes from exposure to the elements and others, there will be no need for accommodating bathing regalia, Nature will attend to that.

A NEW INDUSTRY

A few months ago Mr. D. C. Allen our popular "REO" dealer conceived the idea of constructing a trailer that would meet the requirements of the tourist trade, and he at once commanded that expert builder, Mr. A. B. B. who drew up the plans and commenced construction, and the dream of months is now a finished product, and bid fair to open up an industry in the Village greater than any that has been.

On the 4th of September, Mr. Allen visited the builder with two other friends in the persons of "Doc" Tivy of Port Dover, and the editor of this paper, to go along with him on an observation tour through the Niagara peninsula for the purpose of testing out the good qualities of his home on wheels. Needless to say, the quartette was complete, as the ability of a "Chief" was amply demonstrated by "Doc" and the Editor made suitable replies to the many addresses of welcome received when making brief stops at the several cities enroute.

The trailer, which measures 11 feet 6 inches in length and 6 feet 4 inches in breadth, fully equipped with two double beds, refrigerator, an instant Coleman cooker and heater combined, box seats, beautifully upholstered, table and kitchen cabinet combined, all inside finished in mahogany, and when the beds are dropped gives a width of 14 feet 6 inches making abundant room for four people. On this trip the trailer was drawn by a Reo Wolverine automobile and only ten gallons of gas were used for the entire trip of over two hundred miles. The beds are both equipped with Marshall mattresses and "Doc" says its just like "Ritz Carlton" only better.

"MICHAEL AND MARY" AT REGAN THEATRE

Powerful Drama of a Secret That Came Out After Twenty Years Is By A. M. Milne and Stars Herbert Marshall and Edna Best.

The whole legal machinery of the British Empire was arrayed against them and yet all that mattered was the happiness of one young man of twenty. Thais had been a love that knew no law, and yet they had been married and they were married in the eyes of God. Then, creeping out of old shadows of bitterness, they met in a ugly head into their happiness and threatened to destroy them all—Michael, Mary, David and Romo. And all because "a secret in their lives."

Such is the situation which A. M. Milne built up in his play, "Michael and Mary." Such is the situation which will be involved at the Regan Theatre on September 20, 21, when "Michael and Mary" is first shown in this town. It is a British adaptation of the famous play of the same name, which achieved a season at the Regan Theatre in New York, and "St. James" Theatre in London. It is a story of a young man, Herbert Marshall, and Edna Best, who are almost as well known in this country as they are in England. Herbert Marshall played here in "Toneless and Tomorrow" and was also seen in one of the first talking movies, "The Letter," with Jeanne Eagles and later in "Secrets of a Soul." Edna Best played here in "Melo" and went to the coast to go in the movies, but such was her homesickness for her husband that she returned to New
