JARVIS FALL FAIR

The 75th annual exhibition of the Jarvis Agricultural Society will be held next Tuesday and Wednesday on the Jarvis Park grounds, and everything is being placed for the accommodation of exhibitors.

The improvements made to the grounds since the holding of the last Fair will facilitate the work and make it much easier for the department to complete their duties.

The Officers of the Fair have been at work on the grounds this week, and intend to be back again on Friday and Saturday and will have all in readiness for the opening of the "GREAT WORLDS FAIR" on Tuesday.

The special attractions include the School Children's parade and drill. This parade will be led to the grounds by the Simcoe Boy's Band.
