the Canadian Scout Association at the annual meeting of the Boy Scouts of America at Kansas City, in June, and address that gathering.

The Scout census for 1932 showed 23,140 Wolf Cubs, 31,599 Scouts, 1,836 Rovers, 707 Lone Scouts, 321 Sea Scouts, 4,651 adult leaders—total, 62,354, a gain of 6% over 1931.

There was an increase in the number of French-Canadian Scout troops in Quebec, under the patronage of His Eminence Cardinal Villeneuve.

A substantial gain in River Scouts and Sea Scouts was noted, also in the Lone Scout Branch, for boys on farms or small groups in country villages.

There was a marked increase of Scouting units in children's hospitals and sanitariums, with groups now operating in Quebec, Ontario, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columba.

The Dominion Medal Board cited 18 Scouts for rescues from drowning at serious personal risk, 11 for rescues at less risk, 15 for water rescues and other good work in serious emergencies, without great personal risk.

We believe that anyone reading the above extracts from this annual report will realize how excellent is the work and how far reaching are the results of the Boy Scout organization. Serious minded people all over the work and sanitariums, with groups now operating in Quebec, Ontario, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columba.
