Canada, the Empire and the World at Large

CANADA.
Monday, 1923.
National Hockey League directors might well take a leaf from the book of Nero and, at the start of every game, have the players line up and say: "We who are about to die salute you—Hamilton Spectator."

The Editor Came Clean.
Scott M. Thomas is editor of the Richmond County Journal, published at R. Kingston, N.C. In this week's edition under a two-column heading the front page has published the news that he had been drunk and arrested and paid a fine. He gives the details as follows:
"Scott Thomas, editor of the Journal, 'misked' South Carolina corn liquor at Pennsylvania beer, drank too much and landed in jail. He remained incarcerated two hours, being bailed out by a friend at 11 a.m. Sunday. In Mayor's court yesterday he was taxed with the costs, $5.85."
Of equal interest is the editor's statement affixed to the bottom of the story: "An editor who won't put his own misdeeds in print has no right to publish another's."
No fault to find with the attitude of Mr. Thomas, not the least. Nor can the readers of his paper urge that he used his position to save his own hide. When he sobered up he attacked one of the right rath—St. Paul Beacon-Herald.

Prosperous British Industry.
In days before the war no British child could pick up a toy, game or article of domestic manufacture. Even to the United States where there is a 70 per cent. duty on such imports, daily shipments are being dispatched for the Christmas trade. In one London factory alone there are more than 1,000 people working night and day in the toy industry, boys, which are being exported to more than 20 foreign countries, besides being distributed for home sales.

Some Other Winter.
When last seen the prophets of a third world war were stamping their feet, rubbing their ears and pretending they meant some other winter—Borden Cities Star.

Justice At Its Speediest.
Canadians pride themselves, not without reason, upon the promptness with which justice is meted out in criminal cases. Nevertheless, it would be hard for our courts to better this time when the Ontario Justice Minister has ordered that the London Times draws attention to the fact that the speed in this particular case may be exceptional, but even so, it is an object lesson of its kind.

Perfect Police.
Sixty members of the Metropolitan Police, London, have been ordered to provide themselves with dinner jackets, boiled shirts and all the other formal trimmings. And, we suppose, they will bow from the waist before their betters—Hamilton Spectator.

Peace in the Balkans.
One of the curious features of recent-day politics in Europe is the example which is being set by the Balkan States in the peaceful settlement of difficulties. A few years ago the stock phrase was that there was trouble in the Balkans and these countries were regarded as the danger spot of Europe. Today the Balkan States, including even Turkey, have agreed upon conventions that will maintain peaceful relations between them, while the major powers, who used to regard the Balkans as the home of fire-brands, are finding it difficult to arrive at any understanding that will assure peace—Port Williams Times-Journal.

The Turn of the Economic Tide.
There is a quite definite, if still slight, turn of the economic tide. The tremendous slump of world prices that followed world deflation has apparently been completed. Prices have been brought down to the level demanded by a crazy currency policy, have even begun to recover a little. There is now a possibility of a long, slow improvement in trade and employment—Yonon Daily Herald.

Public Health Precautions.
According to the Director of Medical Services in India, the sickness rate for the Indian troops is at the present time actually lower than that for British troops. Compared with the figure of 82 cases ago, the present-day statistics are so remarkable that those who take figures as final are apt to conclude that India is now a health resort. Major-General Nicholson warns these light-hearted optimists that nothing could be further from the truth. Disease still stalks abroad in India, but rigid precautions ward march it off from many camps and encampments. Relax the precaution and the old conditions would reassert themselves. The price of continued immunity is continued vigilance. Calcutta Statesman.

Judge Marries 7,000.
Bible. Idaho.—An egg a day keeps the doctor away. Judge D. B. Deem has married 7,000 couples during his 35 years' office and granted between 300 and 400 divorces.

Anxiety Felt For John D.

Chicago gangsters used a red to intercept police alarms, which they spent three hours smashing safety deposit boxes in a Chicago bank. Here's the result.

Better Pictures.
It was not the least achievement of the talking picture that it has made the movie adoration of "stars" who could hold a part in a successful stock company. One by one they disappeared, with Hollywood gradually introduced to actors and actresses who could act, and millions of "fans" made aware that histrionic ability consists of more than some female roller-skier eyes and tearing out her hair, the white showing three-fourths of her legs—Ottawa Journal.

Curfew in Montreal.
In the establishment of a 2 a.m. curfew law for cabarets, night clubs and such establishments, the Montreal police are actuated by special consideration for boys and girls of "teen" age. In the last few years the press has been full of news of the "what they are doing" for that age group. It is in the night haunts. As their parents, apparently, will not or cannot make the young people keep reasonable hours the duty devolves upon the police. It will be well if their strictness meet with success—Montreal Gazette.

Forgiveness.
It is, says G. K. Chesterton, "a fine thing to be swift to forgive our enemies, but it is a finer thing not to be too swift to forgive ourselves." "G. K. C." might have amplified the thought. Some people are so diligent in forgiving their enemies, and equal diligent in refraining from forgiving themselves, but the British, who are so made enormous strides, and many thousands of men and women are now engaged in the Christmas trade.

Some Other Winter.
When last seen the prophets of a third world war were stamping their feet, rubbing their ears and pretending they meant some other winter—Borden Cities Star.
