GRATITUDE

When I think of all the blessings
That my Father gives to me,
It brings a deep conviction
How grateful I should be.

How grateful I should be.

OBITUARY

Forbes, was awakened by his mother breathing unusually heavy. The family physician was summoned and soon administered relief, but without avail, and at 6.45 her spirit took its flight to join that of her husband who died quite suddenly, it will be remembered, nine years ago the 11 th of May, while on his way to attend the Synod of Huron meeting at London. The shock of Mr. Geddes' death at that time was a serious one to Mrs. Geddes and one from which she never recovered. In addition to having had a heart affection for some time, deceased was also a victim of diabetes. She was, however, able to be around and enjoy the society of friends and take an interest in church affairs, with which she has been connected since her removal to town thirty-five years ago. A member of the Anglican Church all her life, Mrs. Geddes was an active member of the ladies' organizations of St. Paul's Church, as honorary president of the Mother's Club, and a past president of the Women's Guild. She was also a charter member of the Col. Talbot of Essex Chapter, I.O.D.E. and during the war gave freely of her assistance and help to patriotic work undertaken by the ladies of the town. She was a most estimable lady, of an amiable disposition, who was loved by the members of her sex in the community to a marked degree, and her passing is being received with sincere regret. She was born in Hamilton in October, 1868, her maiden name being Jessie Ann Garson, a member of one of the older families of that city. She was married October 12th, 1899, to Forbes B. Geddes, who had only a short time before begun practice of law in Essex and she has since lived in the town. Two sons were born to the union—Forbes B., who on his father's death, took up and continued his father's practice and has since been town solicitor, and Gamble L., both unmarried and at home. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Alexander Campbell MacLachlan, of Guelph. A brother, William, died some years ago and a sister, Mrs. J. Sill Jones, also well known in Essex, passed away two years ago.

The funeral was fixed for Wednesday afternoon, with private service at the family home on Laird avenue, followed by public service in St. Paul's Church at 3 P.M. and interment in North Ridge Cemetery, alongside the remains of he, husband. The pallbearers were to be Dr. J. W. Brien, W. H. Richardson, R. J. Shaw, R. R. Brett, J. L. Naylor and C. J. Near.

It is even more necessary to be careful in choosing June chicks than in choosing earlier chicks. If you are going to sell your high-priced eggs, next November and December, the pullets from June-hatched chicks have got to start climbing into the nests at 5 months old — and they've got to be big, vigorous and well matured at that time.
Bray "Foundation Grade" chicks fill the bill to perfection. Extra size at hatching time; extraordinary vigor; faster growth. Let us show you. Write us, or phone your nearest Bray hatchery for particulars. June prices lower.

Accident Fatal To Prominent Hagersville Doctor

Dr. Gordon R. Mackay, prominent Hagersville physician met almost instant death when the car in which he was driving took the ditch just north of here on No. 6 highway on Sunday morning about 2 A.M. His wife who was with him at the time escaped serious injury although was badly shaken up.

Dr. and Mrs. Mackay had been visiting friends in Port Dover and were returning to their home in Hagersville at the time of the accident. The automobile run along the shoulder of the road for some distance before it went into the ditch. When it struck the ditch, however, it turned over several times and it was believed Mrs. Mackay must have been thrown clear before the car stopped.

J. Peresky and T. Roman, drivers of the City Dairy Drimilk truck were the first on the scene and removed Mrs. Mackay to Dr. Jones office in Jarvis and summonded the police and the Coroner. The latter decided that death was accidental and that no inquest would be necessary.

Wonderful Provincial Asset
Hydro Growth In Jarvis

(Special to the Jarvis Record by E. George Smith)

Toronto, June 6—Jarvis light and power users have built up $17,843 in reserves and surplus for their local Hydro business out of their low Hydro rates. These assets, amassed without imposition of a cent of taxation on ratepayers, are comprised as follows—

Reserve for equity in Hydro system $6,809; reserve for depreciation on local plant $1,825; debentures paid $3,389; and operating surplus $5,729.

Hydro power was first turned on in Jarvis in February of 1924. Since 1925 the growth of operations has been as follows: total number of customers increased from 94 to 161; average horsepower used increased from 132 to 188.7; total revenue increased from $8,809 to $9,743; lighting revenue increased from $2,710 to $4,313; kilowatt hour sale increased from 35,588 to 123,394; and plant capital increased in value from $13,071 to $16,334.

Along with 756 other Hydro municipalities in Ontario, Jarvis has shared a $600,000,000 cash saving in electricity bills due to the entry of public power into Ontario. This figure is arrived at by Ontario Hydro Electric Power Commission statisticians after comparing Hydro light in grates with pre-Hydro rates and Hydro power costs with $40 steam power development from coal. The recent rates of 4.1 and 3 cents per kilowatt hour for domestic and commercial lighting in Jarvis are about one-third the rates in effect in similar sized municipalities prior to Hydro. Since 1925 the average cost to lighting consumers in Jarvis has been reduced from 7.57 to 3.50 cents per kilowatt hour.

Provincially, the people's light and power business improved very materially as to load conditions and finances during the year 1933. In February, 1933, the load supplied by the Commission reached its lowest point since 1929. Recovering throughout the summer, the Commission, in December 1933 supplied on all systems the largest load in its history to the municipalities and its customers.

Despite economic difficulties of the times, there was a net increase in Commission reserves last year of over $3,000,000 making a total of over $69,000,000 Commission reserves — cash assets of the Hydro light and power users of Ontario. Although the last decade included four years of severe depression over 70 per cent of Commission reserves have been amassed in the years since 1922.

It is estimated that Ontario electricity users would be paying at least $50,000,000 more per year on their electricity bills if they paid the average rates in effect in United States cities. Ontario's average domestic lighting rate (including rural) of 1.7 cents per kilowatt hour is about one third of the average rate in 25 representative United States cities. New York City's rate, for instance, is 6 cents per kilowatt hour

The Ontario Hydro Electric Power Commission has compressed into 10 pairs of comparative figures the growth of Hydro in the last decade. The first figure in each case represents the total at the end of 1923; the second figure shows the result at the end of 1933.

Peak load 669,080 — 1,511,033.
Municipalities served 393—757.
Total number of customers, including rural 387,983 — 617,000.
Main transmission lines 2,084 — 16,237
Reserves Hydro $12,000,000 — $69,000,000.
Reserves municipalities $21,000,000 — $60,000,000.
Capital investment Hydro $179,000,000 — $288,000,00.
Capital investment municipalities $60,000,000 — $112,000,000.
Miles of rural line 605 — 9,000. (over 1,200 p.c. increase).
Rural customers 7,700 — 62,000.

Small Blaze At The Marshall Dairy

On Thursday morning the Fire Department were given a call to the Marshall Dairy, however, upon their arrival the blaze had been brought under control. The origin of the fire was undetermined. It was discovered by the men in the casein department when they smelt the smoke but had difficulty in determining where it was originating. It was finally discovered in the Casein Drier and was soon extinguished although it started up at various intervals all morning.

Miss Ironside, of Simcoe, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hodges, on Thursday of last week. She is considerably improved after her three months illness.

BASEBALL

Baseball during the past week has not been of such a nature that any front page headlines might be developed. The intermediates, after getting away to a real start with Hagersville last Thursday fell down in the pinch and the usual, Hagersville result occured.

The Juveniles, after losing by a small margin in their game at Cayuga came back against Dunnville at the home diamond last Saturday to send that team home in the sixth innings.
