Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. J. R. Eadie, of Russell, Ontario. Mr. Eadie, who is an employee of the Marshall Company in Simcoe, was hurriedly called to his home the early part of last week, due to her serious illness. She died away on Tuesday, April 7th.

Since their return from the sunny south some friends of Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Booth, have enjoyed a real grapefruit (pink and white) and ranging size from coconuts to orchard at Brownsville, Texas, then carried home and boy, were they good?

Congratulations were in order for John Emerson Kindred yesterday. The occasion being his birthday. Our files reveal that he celebrated his fifty-ninth birthday last year, whether or not that would indicate he is celebrating his sixtieth anniversary this year we are not prepared to say. Nevertheless we are happy to extend our heartiest felicitations.
