The closing hymn was 599 followed by the Lord's Prayer.

Early History Of Walpole Recalled

One of the first white men to live in the Township of Walpole was a man named Peacock, from whom the point of land on which he lived took its name. He did not, however, make any permanent settlement in Walpole before the Hoovers. They bought several acres of land on the point of land on which he lived. The first white man to settle in the township at this time they chose to settle along the shore, about the year 1800.

Obituary

MRS. HOMER UNDERHILL

A beloved wife and kind friend and neighbor was called by death on Tuesday, April 21st, at Collingwood, Ontario, after an illness of long duration, in the person of Mrs. Homer Underhill. She was sixty-one years of age. Deceased was formerly Florence, daughter of the late Donald and Christina Campbell and was born on the Tenth Line in Northwassa Township, twenty-seven years ago she was married to Mr. Underhill, and all her life, with the exception of eight years' residence in Owen Sound, was spent in Collingwood.

Haldimand And Norfolk W.M.S.

The tenth annual meeting of the Haldimand-Norfolk Presbyterial of the Women's Missionary Society met in the United Church, Dunnville on Thursday, April 23rd.

The morning's session opened at 9:30 with the president, Mrs. J. H. Pond of Simcoe in charge. The secretary of the district, Mrs. O. T. Scott, Caldwell, reported the year 1935 showed the first increase in giving since the year 1920. While this increase was not large it was most encouraging and hoped the turning point was passed. Many auxiliaries showed increase in membership but this was offset by losses due to death and removal, so membership was only one above last year.
