In Erie committed thirteen errors, a new high for the 1934 season. Hill had seven strikeouts to his credit and had the game well in hand throughout. Stader on the hill for the vanquished, did not pitch his usual game as a result of his poor support.

Knocks & Boosts

Red Sox Lose Second Game
"Doc" Dougherty Again Bestrides "Sox" to Four Scattered Hits Bases Loaded.

In what may prove to be the crucial game of the best three out of five series, Hagersville Villans downed Simcoe for the second straight time on Thursday afternoon in the Quarrytown.

The deciding game was anything but good baseball, taking fully two and a half hours to complete. Hagersville outdid the Ports fourteen to eleven, but their hits were not nearly as effective.

At the time that the rain hit in a very interesting game was in progress between the Townsend All-Stars and what was supposed to be the Toronto Maple Leafs. Charles Conacher was the only Leaf present, but he looked big enough from the backstop to represent the entire team.
