A TRUE STORY - - -

FOR THE NEW YEAR - - -

Ten months ago, Fred W. Barnwell, a Secretarial Graduate of the Robinson Business College, Waterford, accepted a stenographic position with the Hard Rock Gold Mines of Geraldton, at $106. a month.

A few days ago he walked into our office stating that his salary had been raised to $150. a month, and that he was being promoted to an accountant's position.

He had been instructed to procure another R.B.C. graduate to take his place in the same office. We were able to fill this—the 34th—call, by recommending Howard V. Culliford, who has already reported for duty.

We now have two other calls pending from the North and one in this vicinity, for bright young men with our training. Two of our young ladies have also accepted recent appoint-

As we grow older we naturally encounter deception. Our implicit belief in the honesty and generosity of other people must occasionally receive a rude shock. But that does no harm so long as we do not allow it to undermine our faith in human nature. The man who declares "I'll never believe anyone's word again" just because one 14784, has deceived in the goodness of life, that makes the cause one hal untorit mately tried to eat a stale one."

It is this faith in people, and in the goddness of life, that makes the child so delightful. It is this, too, that accounts in large measure for that extra ordinary sensitive ness, which some people call "uncanny" which is so often found in children. A happy child knows by a sort of instinct when things are wrong around him. He does not need to overhear a quarrel to know that a coldness has arisen between members of his family. He does not need to werhear a quarrel to know that a coldness has arisen between members of his family. He does not need to do does are good for the child strengthened as the years pass, so hat it develops into a wide, deep ympathy which needs no demand.
