Long Sighted Buying

As a taxpayer and resident of your town or municipality a little thought will show it to be in your own interests to do your buying carefully, thus making sure that your fellow citizens who have goods or services to sell will get the profit, and in turn pass it on to you, rather than that the profit being rendered non-effective through out-of-town buying.

There is another important point in connection with home buying that is not sufficiently appreciated, which is that a product or service offered for sale in the community can be examined or understood before any money changes hands.

And to settle all arguments concerning the goal pads in Jarvis at the present time. There are two complete sets, gloves and all. With the exception of one Betty Pad, they are the property of the Jarvis Town League Hockey Club.

When you get down to an analysis of these natural forces you find that they are chiefly the product of some termination of men and women to set themselves to their daily tasks with high personal courage and an earnest desire to do a constructive job every day despite the difficulties that depression imposes upon them.

Recovery and Reform. The war derailed our economic locomotive. Obviously, our first effort should have been to get it back on the track again so that the train of business could proceed.

But many of the people who might have been counted upon to aid in the task — to join the wrecked crew as it were — have been busy in another way. They argue that the old locomotive was no good anyway. Why not scrap it, they say, and design a better one?

Apparently T.C.M. of the Simcoe Re-Former got his wires crossed when he made out his account of the 9th trimming of the local handed Simony only had five errors in it and course that is excusable. It is true that the locals were skating so quickly and so lightly that it was hard to distinguish the players around the Simcoe net and that's where they were most of the evening. T.C.M. should have brought his assistants in conference with Messrs. White and Fry of Dunnville.

Interest is not conducive to the best selection of the Town. Not only does it lead to the possibility of the election of a poorer type of representative but it also does not stir all active to their positions. No incentive to the council is created by the present method. It is therefore hardly logical to expect to get busy on the job of Reform in order that the job of Reform may be done better.

Our First Objective. I conceive it our first objective to get the locomotive back on the track. I do not object at

FIRST THINGS FIRST

The Tasks Ahead in Canada

An address by Floyd S. Chalmers, editor of The Financial Post, before the Insurance Institute of Toronto at the annual dinner meeting at the Royal York Hotel, October 31, 1935. The title of this address is "First Things First." And taking my cue from the title, may I state what I consider to be the major objective to which all business and government leaders and all private citizens should be setting their course today. That objective is "Recovery."

Recovery is the first need. It is first among all things. What do we mean by recovery? It implies lifting ourselves completely out of the depression and re-energizing again our normal rate of economic development.

In a young country we tend to think of Recovery in terms of change. Thus we destroyed the economic and financial equilibrium. We have not succeeded yet in finding a new equilibrium.

Following the military struggles of the Great War came the economic campaigns. Let us not forget that the war ended on November 11, 1918, was only a curtain raiser for the equally bitter struggle between the nations that followed.

Some situation we boys have got ourselves tied up in. Oh, well, if the cold weather lasts through February the Church league should get started again, even though we have to do without the championship. We have to win the Provincial championship for the Church league can find themselves sufficient goal pads to have a game.

Maybe it would be a good idea for the church league boys to organize a broomball. Some fun lies in that. That game at least there seemed to be when the Freeman and the Marshall Dairy got themselves into competition at the carnival the other night.
