Love The Children

Don't be afraid to show the children that you love them. The boy or girl who is not loved by his parents is not easily guided and his education is not so successful.

Knocks & Boosts

SIDE LINER
So Hagersville Villians finally caught up with themselves. Several errors look like a lot on Hagersville's score sheet, but nevertheless, that's what they did. Did they beat the game away? No. Their lack caught out forever and Tilsonburg could then twelve to seven.

Well with the Davis Cup series under way the United States limited itself to a success. Once more the German team triumphed in the Philadelphia, where the series was held, has proved itself a defeat to the hopes of all American tennis fans.

Nevertheless the boys are out every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday nights and even if the citizens do not turn out for some support from our village to back up "our" team, it will be an organization to be remembered throughout the winter and organized once again next year.

Sometimes when we attend a ball game we wonder when the surrounding towns begin to explain the action of the curbs ball. The curbs ball has a long history and we are not going to go into it in length.
