BRAV CHICKS WEIGH 2 LBS. AT 8 WEEKS

Only 7 Chicks Last, out of 257—
Pullets Look Like Little Hens
On January 7th, Mrs. Harry O. Barton, Embro, Ont., put 257 Brav Barred Rock day-old chicks under her brooder. On March 2nd (8 weeks later) she wrote:

"Today, March 2nd, 250 of the 257 are alive and doing well, which, considering the extreme weather we have had, is a pretty good record. We expect the cockerels to be 3-lb. broilers at 11 weeks old. Some are 2 lbs. now—the pullets look like young hens, all feathered out and big long tails sticking out, and their combs coming out. Wouldn't you like to try a flock of Brav stock this year? This is an isolated example. We receive letters like the above from numerous customers, every year. Get our 1936 catalogue and you will see some more of them."
Chicks for immediate delivery. Nine breeds. Prices reasonable. Free feed or cash discount on orders booked now for later delivery.

Amendment Sought To Tree Planting Assessment Act

The Assessment Act reads as follows:
Section 1 (b) "Land", "Real Property" and "Real Estate" shall include:
2. All trees and underwood growing upon land.
Under this clause a landowner contemplating the planting of forest trees or orchard, faces an annually increasing tax which no other growing crop entails.
With urgent need of reforestation to correct drought, erosion and flood menace, it is imperative that this part of the Act be amended, in so far as least, to allow Counties the option of enacting a bylaw to exempt the tree growth from being added to the value of the land for tax purposes.
Norfolk County is vitally interested in this problem and has asked for such legislation each of the last four years.
Each year, the Ministers interviewed have made favourable promises but have failed to enact a goodly percentage of land in Norfolk County would be planted to forest trees and orchards and thus brought into production, were the menace of increasing taxation removed.
The Norfolk County Chamber of Commerce has made the following recommendations which have been endorsed by the Reformation Committee of the Norfolk County Council and the Norfolk Fruit Growers' Association.
1. That County Councils be authorized under the Act, bylaw to invest assessors with power to entirely exempt "Tree Growth" from taxation.
2. That this legislative authority be optional and therefore not an imposition on those Counties which are strictly agricultural or for other reasons are not potential forest districts and are therefore not in sympathy with the afore stated amendment.
3. That "Tree Growth" be defined:
(a) Natural Forest or Farm Woodlots.
(b) Forest Plantations Established by Reformation.
(c) Fruit Trees.
4. That all LAND under tree growth be taxed on an assessed valuation on a basis comparable with that assessed on neighboring non planted land of similar soil and site conditions.

OBITUARY

REV. CLIFFORD T. BENNETT
The death of Clifford Thomas Bennett, occurred at his home at Elora, Ont., on Sunday, March 22nd, 1936.

The late Rev. Bennett was ordained in the Methodist ministry fifty years ago and had various charges in the Hamilton conference, including the Jarvis and Nanticoke circuit, when those churches were under the one ministry. He retired from the ministry fourteen years ago, and spent the remaining years of his life quietly at his home at Elora Park.

He is survived by his widow, formerly, Elizabeth Ann McCall, one daughter, Miss Sybil Bennett, B. A. and two sons, C. Arnold Bennett and Clifford T. Bennett, Jr.

The funeral was held from his late home at Elora, on Monday, March 23rd, at 1 P.M., with service at the house and interment in Mount Hope Cemetery, Brantford.

ALBERT E. EVANS
The funeral of Albert E. Evans, a highly esteemed resident and formerly well-known real estate operator took place on Sunday, March 22nd, from his home, 99 Cannon Street, Hamilton, east to Oakwood Cemetery, Brantford.

Wit And Humour

"Clad to see you getting in on these morning Courtneys," said the evening, gave of their best.

"Yes, Sir, I've got a parrot now. A parrot, what for? I advised you to get an alarm clock."

"I did, sir, but after five mornings I got used to it and it failed to wake me, so I got a parrot and now when I retire I set the alarm clock on his cage. It wakes the parrot and what that bird says would wake anybody."

Someone asked Wimpy the other day if he knew what made the tower of Pisa lean. He replied: "I don't know or I would take some myself."

Mr. John Carpenter, of Toronto, is spending a few days with friends in the village and surrounding district.

Mr. Wm. Eubank and Miss Betty of Hagersville, visited on Sunday at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. and Mrs. W. Duxbury.

They had pie at Dinty's the other day.

"Is this peach or apple pie?" "Can't you tell by the taste?" "No, I can't."

"Well then, what difference does it make?"

They tell us George and "Arry" had some words the other day. George says he had some but he didn't get a chance to use them.

Pepper says, "Flattery is soft soap and soft soap is 90% lye."

Don says, "A blotter is something you look for while the ink dries."

We wonder is Newt is going to clean out the septic tank as we notice he is breaking in the hip boots.

Johnson is a man who always weighs his words, isn't he?" "Yes, but it takes a duce of a lot of 'em to weigh anything."

With bowed head Miller entered his house. His dragging feet sufficed their way through the front hall and into the kitchen where his wife was preparing the evening meal. The sun faded from her face as she noticed the woe-begone appearance of her better half.

"Laird" she cried, slumping into a chair.

Laird stared straight ahead with dead eyes.

"Tell me" pleaded his wife. She came over to him and lifted his hand in her hand.

"The worst," he said dully. "What has happened?"

"Oh" cried Mrs. Miller, "Did you get tired?"

"No," said Laird, "The boss called me in just before quitting time and gave me the business."

Edie was stated as saying that if the Toronto team went to the Stanley Cup play-offs with Toronto, they would be very much in the race.

In view of the mental as well as physical strain of the National Hockey game leaves the human frame. It was decided to rest for a few minutes before leaving the Queen City for the homebound journey.

Therefore the entire assembly program was found themselves congregated in the "Jacob Astor rest room" residence. Some of the family feeling the need of rest rather than the others decided to remain in the rest room.

The return of the rest room was not made collectively. We understand the last carload to leave Toronto enjoyed the pleasure of a few moments in company with Edie Shore the famous Boston defender.

When The Jarvis Boys Step Out

The local sporting gentry turned out in force last night on the last Thursday afternoon, preparatory to the annual trip to the Maple Leaf Gardens to see their favored National Hockey League team in action.

Organized under that capable organizer "Sam Willis" the party, which included three carloads, got away within two hours of the appointed time, and after a strenuous rocky mountain trip over snow and snowbanks arrived in Toronto, Ontario.

After a visit to the famous Toronto Art Gallery and other famous Public buildings the party were directed to the exclusive "Jacob" Hotel. The party was met by the "Jacob" Hotel and after a brief discussion of the main event of the outing. After walking at least four miles and getting kicked out of several places, the party apparently belonged to someone with Chautauque, assisted by a planist, violinist and soloist, (all radio artists of Hamilton) will furnish a good program. Supper served from 6 P.M. to 8 P.M. Admission, Adults 25c. Children under 12 years 15c.
