THE SNAPSHOT GUIDE
DON'T FORGET THE BABY

IT isn't necessary to check back over vital statistics or do any research work to know that thousands of new babies made their debut into this world during the past few months. In fact, a lot of babies were born yesterday.

How many parents have taken snapshots of their new arrivals? The chances are that the majority have been so busy watching the antics of the little rascals that they have completely overlooked the fact that babies have a habit of growing up and changing right before parents' eyes without their seeing the change—in size, disposition, looks or actions.

Cute things the baby may do today may be completely forgotten by him tomorrow. A snapshot will preserve that little baby gesture for years to come. Of course you want many so-called "record" pictures of the youngster but for the most part make an effort to map the baby when he is doing something.

Sooner or later he will discover that he has lots to play with. Snap a picture of him when his tiny little hands have a "strange hold" on his chubby foot. You will cherish that picture in years to come.

In a baby's life there is the first smile; the first time he reaches out his little arms to be pulled from his crib; the first time he takes himself up to the side of a chair and then his first step. By all means don't fail to get a picture of his first excursion from his "high chair" into the family for his first meal at the table.

Make it a practice, or better yet, a duty to have your camera loaded at all times and ready for action. At

Knocks & Boosts
- BY - SIDELINER

By the time this column is read by its followers (if any) the World Series will be off to a grand and glorious start. Yes! We also like the fact that the Yankees have won the 1926 World Series. There are a great many "ifs" and "buts" but after they are all smoothed down it appears that the Yankees have the edge. The Murderer Row, consisting of Selkirk, Powell, Lazzeri, etc. are capable of Crockett, Dinnaggio, Gehrig, Frisco, and the rest of the big bludgeons of the National League. Carl Hubbell has been pitching the best for the past two or three weeks. The best of them have their off days and it will be certain for Terry and Co. if his comes in one of his play-off assignments.

Again the Yankees look like the favorites when you consider that this year's team has won more than any other team in the history of the game. The team has won more than any other team in the history of the game. The team has won more than any other team in the history of the game. The team has won more than any other team in the history of the game.

What next? Caledonia and Hagersville have hatched up a little scheme whereby the winners of a three game series between Caledonia and Hagersville will be the winners of the Hagersville. If Caledonia cannot be beaten, why not try to beat Hagersville? This is a natural progression if that is the agreement and according to the Hagersville Press sports editor, it must be why not the Tobacco Belt Championship at all. Further more, where does the Red Sox get in on such Championship? He is not worrying because in the first place it is a Championship and in the second place we don't think the reinforced concrete of our business and industry is the underlying of our what we call the Hagersville and Simcoe—Port Rowan—Haw.

What we would like to see is a Joe Louis heavyweight champion of the world. The Red Sox is a hager. His suggestion of a week ago, that the winners of a Hagersville-Caledonia tilt meet the winners of a Simcoe-Delhi series, gets in our hair. The Red Sox get in on such Championship. Further more, where does the Red Sox get in on such Championship? He is not worrying because in the first place it is a Championship and in the second place we don't think the reinforced concrete of our business and industry is the underlying of our what we call the Hagersville and Simcoe—Port Rowan—Haw.
