THIS WEEK ON PARLIAMENT HILL

Ottawa, Oct. 22 — Trade jumped back into the capital tonight this week. When changes in French and Italian financial policies increased the bright outlook for the extension of Canadian trade.

Under the revised quotas observers are confident that Canadian trade will be extended. Articles to which the quotas apply include cheese, salmon, lobster, barley, apples, confectionery, lumber, lead, fish, board, patent leather, calf skin, agricultural implements, veneers, and automobiles.

Just recently Frank Parker celebrated his 70th birthday. The well-known Dallas Texan, and the following day in New York City. Parker is a licensed pilot, a o-o-jer, a writer, a lecturer, a yachtsman, a horse breeder, a successful night club owner for some time, and a successful business man. He has been in New York from his native New Orleans, less than three years ago. Unknown to his friends, he is a successful night club owner for some time, and a successful business man.

Details of the appropriation being made by the Federal Government toward aiding drought stricken farmers of the western provinces is to be announced shortly. The amount for direct relief is expected to total about $75,000,000 of which $25,000,000 is for the purchase of wheat, and $50,000,000 for the purchase of other commodities.
