DANGER LINE AT FORTY

(By Dr. John L. Rice)

In place of providing long list of rules for the guidance of middle-aged men he presents “eleven substitutes” worth thinking about after forty.

1. One less hour of worry for more hour of laughter.

2. One less week of high pressure living for one more week of restful vacation.

3. One less luncheon conference for one more mid-day period of relaxation.

4. One less evening of formal society for one more evening with a jolly club.

5. One less banquet for one more quiet supper with the family.

6. One less hour under the electric light for one more in the sunshine.

7. One less hour in the auto for one more swinging along on a horse.

8. One less hour of work for one more physical examination by your doctor.

9. One less pound of body fat for one more of tougher muscle.

10. One less helping of meat for one more of vegetables.

11. One less cocktail for one more hour of sleep.

"SERVICE OUR SPECIALTY"

Dr. Alan Roy Dafeo, the country doctor who has the five most famous patients in the world, the Dionne quintuplets, is now heading a series of programs of his own over the WARC-Columbia network each Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 11:45 A.M. to 12 noon. Also associated on the program with him are Ruth Carhart, contralto, who will sing nursery songs and lullabies and a nurse who will give facts on health.

Dr. Dafeo will speak from program will originate in New York City—Smiling Ed McConnell, the son of a minister developed his talent for church affairs in his childhood—two and a half octaves, o-o Ray Martin, endman who has succeeded Cliff Soudier on the Greater Shell Chorus.

Minstrel, mastered blackface comedy technique under the tutelage of the late Bert Williams, famous negro entertainer. o-o Triumphs at amateur contests while leading a college band in his youth.

Peter Van Steeden, musical director of the Town Hall, NBC program on NBC, to embrace the role of a professional. And this despite the fact that the “winner” of a contest as first prize at a theatre singing competition promptly turned green, being unable to sing.

Paul Whitman's favorite dish, a child can't eat, served good and well on his Radio City associates' menu.

Frank Black, NBC's general manager, gets so much work

duce every day. The secret is steadily rising. Black is up and dressed every day at 6:00 A.M. no matter how late he retires, and does an hour's work before even tasting his coffee. He breakfasts at 7:30 and two solid hours at his desk before the 1:00 o'clock rush begins. He is famous for her ankles as well as for his voice which Jeanne Cowan, ballad singer heard on Monday night Carfaree Carnival program. In recent William Powell picture, “Star of Midnight,” a sequence called for a pedal-extremity closeup of a stenographer stepping into a taxi-cab. Miss Cowan's voice was heard on phonograph records throughout the film.
