Department of Agriculture Three Month Short Course

Classes in Agriculture and Home Economics to be held at Jarvis Opening Nov. 24

A meeting called for last Friday night to discuss the holding of a Three Months' School in Agriculture and Home Economics at Jarvis was given very briefly by A. Gordon Shinn, Agricultural Representative under which such a course could be held at Jarvis. The regulations were then thrown open to a free discussion of the merits of such a class and among those who spoke were Reeve Marshall, of Jarvis, Reeve Parkinson, of Walpole township, Mrs. Chas. McBride, President of the Women's Institute, Mr. Ralph Goding, of Townsville and others.
