The Ideal School Frock For Six to Fourteen

When it's a question of a smartlooking, useful frock for the schoolgoing, hard-playing girl, the answer is today's jumper and blouse outfit. The jumper, cut in two pieces, is run up in no time at all, and the simple blouse with puffed sleeves and a snug round collar, follows suit.

Girls of this age often cannot carry a skirt well, but since the blouse and skirt combination is such a universally practical one, the problem is easily solved by making a jumper which hangs from the shoulders, instead of a skirt.
