AN IMPERIAL SCOUT CONFERENCE

During the Jamboree, leaders of the principal Empire Scout contingents were called together by Lord Baden-Powell, as an Imperial Scout Committee, and as Canada's representative, Mr. Stewart was made its first chairman. At the opening session reference was made to a statement by the Prime Minister of Canada, the Hon. Mackenzie King, at the last Imperial Conference, stressing the value of such Empire gatherings and the free exchange of experiences, information and opinions. Many matters of general interest were discussed. The next meeting of the Imperial Scout Committee will be held in Scotland in 1939, during the 3rd World Rover Scout gathering. In addition to Canada, the conference was attended by representatives of Australia, India, New Zealand, South Africa and Great Britain.

Knox Church Mission Band

The Mission Band of Knox church held its annual concert on Friday evening, December 3rd. The meeting opened with an opening song by the band, after which the Rev. G. Lloyd Evans offered a prayer. A pianoforte duet was beautifully rendered by Inez and Lavone Machell followed by a recitation by Molly Cooke which was very well given. A solo was rendered by Lois Leithong accompanied by her mother. She has a good voice and promises to be a great singer. Then the leader of the band, Mrs. McBride performed a pleasing duty of presenting the children who had been most faithful in their attendance with a gift of a book each. Mrs. Powell, the President of the W.M.S. brought greetings from her Society and Miss Elliott from the W.M.S. Auxiliary. Both complimented the Mission Band upon the valuable work they were accomplishing. Mrs. Fleming, Mrs. Meehan and Mrs. Jacques spoke also very encouraging words. The Juniors then gave a motion song which was well received. Then the Paganant was very well done. A violin solo was given by Inez Machell and the tableau by the girls and the meeting came to a close with the band singing the closing chorus. Without a doubt this was the best effort yet put forth by our Mission Band. The Minister pronounced the benediction.

ENTERTAIN FRIENDS

A pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Mahony on Friday last when Miss Mary O'Mahony and her cousin, Miss Eileen Gibbons, of Varesa, entertained a number of their young friends. Excellent music was furnished for dancing by Mr. McDermott, of Sincoc and our local talent.

Mrs. Chas. Peacock, of Hagererville entertained at the dinner table on Tuesday, December 4th, in honour of her father, Mr. J. H. Forrest, who celebrated his birthday on that date. The guests reported a very enjoyable time and all joined in wishing Mr. Forrest many happy returns of the day.

VARENCY W.I.

The Varence Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Thos. Dunbar on Friday, December 3rd. The meeting opened with the Opening Ode, followed by the Lord's Prayer and Institute Creed. After a discussion of the business at hand, the meeting was given over to Mrs. P. McMullen, who was in charge of the program. Mrs. Ivan McKenzie gave a two minute talk on the motto Mrs. Thos. Reynolds rendered a piano selection and Mrs. Bruce Smith gave the topic. Her roll call was answered by "My Favorite Christmas Recipe." In place of the usual exchange of Christmas gifts, a bazaar was held with the material in the articles not costing over 25c and the results were very gratifying. At the close of the meeting the National Anthem was sung and a delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

77th BIRTHDAY

Mr. William Machell, who for nearly thirty-five years has been a resident of Jarvis, observed the Seventy-seventh anniversary of his birth on Tuesday. Born in England, Mr. Machell spent sixteen years in Nanticoke before making his residence here. He carried on a painting and paper hanging trade here for some time, but in recent years he has almost discontinued this work. He takes a keen interest in church affairs and is a regular attendant at St. Paul's Anglican Church. We join with others in extending felicitations on this happy occasion.

WINTER SETS IN IN EARNEST

Driving Hazardous Over Week-End Winter set in in earnest in this district over the week-end and as yet there are no signs indicating a let up. A light coating of snow on the highways has made driving dangerous, and motor traffic has necessarily been proceeding with caution. The highways department have been keeping the hills and curves sanded, but a few minor accidents have occurred on the straight away. High winds have made the cold weather more intense, and the expression "Is this cold enough for you?" has been heard often this week.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE

(continued from page one) nor has annually spent out of his own pocket. The money will stay in the pocket or bank of the Lieutenant-Governor, instead of being distributed for the enhancement of what is the employment of workers. It is not to be forgotten that the social activities at Government House cease, the whole social life of the city and Province will suffer a considerable let-down. The main sufferers will be the business community and the workers. One of the reasons why the Royal Family in England holds courts and social functions is that these functions stimulate business for the tradesmen and make work for the unemployed. In closing Government House, the Premier is dealing a serious financial blow against those very classes in the community to whom he feels that his radical course will appeal. Another reason why Mr. Hepburn is closing Government House is that he possesses little background of education, knowledge, experience or tradition. In 1924 he told a friend that "Great Britain has meant nothing more in my mind than a spot on the map." About the same time, a member of his family was quoted by a Liberal newspaper as saying that he (Mr. Hepburn) felt uncomfortable in aristocratic society. These statements suggest not economy but rather a lack of pro-British sentiment, together with a definite inferiority complex.

The Premier declares that there will be no posts or uniforms or guns henceforth at openings of the Legislature and that the title Honorable will be omitted by the Clerk in addressing members. This attitude reveals an entire ignorance of the significance of ceremonial in human affairs. The ritual to which he objects is reminiscent and eloquent of the long and successful struggle for civil and religious liberty in which the British peoples have led the way for mankind. We agree with Mr. Bertrand Russell, the English writer and philosopher, who has written that "our world has a heritage of culture and beauty" that "governments have fallen into the hands of men ignorant of the past, without tenderness towards what is traditional, without understanding of what they are destroying." Mr. Hepburn forgets that under the British North America Act, the Lieutenant-Governor is the head of the Provincial Government and the King's representative, and that as such he should be treated with proper distinction and courtesy.

If the Premier of Ontario is logical, he will abolish the mace and the Speaker's cocked hat and eliminate the prayers for divine guidance at the opening of each day's session. The more human beings become civilized and educated, the fonder they are of impressive ritual in church and in state, the greater emphasis they lay upon the beautiful and significant in life, the more value they place upon the propriety of conducting public ceremonies in decency and order. Like Mr. Mackenzie King today, great Liberals of the calibre of Blake, Laurier, Mevart, Hardy and Ross delighted in honoring the King's representatives at Ottawa and in Toronto. But they were men of education and distinction.

FLOWMEN CLOSE SUCCESSFUL YEAR

(continued from page one) necessarily in itself but along with other organizations formed particularly for that purpose. New officers were elected and delegates appointed to the annual meeting of the Ontario Association. Votes of thanks were also tendered to the retiring President, Mr. Smith, and to the speaker of the day, Mr. Stockley. The principal Officers appointed were as follows: Hon. Presidents, Frank Laidlaw, Jarvis, J. W. Richardson, Caledonia, P. A. Cleveland, Schick, Past President Jas. B. Smith, Cayuga; President, Geo. Wharton, Cayuga; 1st Vice President, Chas. Fenwick, South Cayuga; 2nd Vice President, Ed. Hyslop, Caledonia; Secretary-Treasurer, A. Gordon Skinner, Cayuga.
