SHAM SHARON WYNNE DEBUTANTE

When Gay Needham, whose home is a Western ranch, inherits a large sum of money, her mother decides that it should be used to get Gay into the most exclusive of New York...

"Hum-m-m," he yawned as he looked at them. Then he frowned. "Hah! That doesn't seem fair— for you to steal the whole show, Gay, while Irene is left out in the cold."

"I'm not surprised," Mrs. Needham said. "Why, that's right! Gay gaped in amazement. 'It proves that Gay is just where she belongs,' Mrs. Needham said complacently. 'While that hateful Irene—'

"Yes, it's one of those whispering campaigns. No one knows how they start, and they are hard to stop. But you two vivacious, too pert. You're too good, and are too popular."

"I'm not surprised," Mrs. Needham said. "Why, that's right! Gay gaped in amazement. 'It proves that Gay is just where she belongs,' Mrs. Needham said complacently. 'While that hateful Irene—'

Horse and Buggy Wired for Sound and Light

If farmers and buggy drivers would take a leaf out of Frank Dyer's book there would be far fewer accidents. Just because Frank Whitcomb, Wis., prefer to horse and buggy to an auto, you needn't think he's old-fashioned. His rig uses more electricity than an auto does. Leading from left to right, he has two harness lights in place of bells on the horse, four spoke lights on each wheel, a flashlight and horn on the dashboard, a radio, a three-lamp taillight, two tailboard lights beside the seat, loud speakers on both sides (one can be seen between the spokes of the rear wheel), and big tail-light with "Howdy" painted on it. Five batteries at the rear furnish current. He says that sometimes when motorists meet him on the road at night they put up at the side because they don't know what's coming.

The Stars And You

By A. R. WEIR. What the Stars foretell for those born on Dec. 31, Jan. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6. If the date of your birth is listed above, you were born when the sun was in Capricorn—the 10th sign of the Zodiac. This makes you a "Sun sign" and you are in the 10th house. You prefer to live quietly, rather shirking responsibilities and you are not at all demonstrative in your affections.
