MEDITATIONS FROM -- THE -- EDITOR'S DESK

FIRE EQUIPMENT

Fire Protection in the Village is at present a subject of much concern. It is realized that our present equipment is below standard and does not offer the protection we should have. The present truck has been in service for twelve years and although it answered the purpose at that time, has become obsolete in many respects. The motor and mechanical parts of the truck can no longer be depended upon to respond immediately should the need arise. In addition we are without a fire pump making it necessary to store the truck in a public garage. Under such conditions it is impossible to keep the truck attentioned where it can be taken out in a hurry, and therefore the truck cannot be of efficient use under such conditions.

Although we have not been threatened with any dangerous fires lately, we are overdue at the present time. Unless something is done we are taking a chance of losing our property without an effort. The assessment of the Village is over $200,000. and it would be an impossibility to purchase the individual properties of the Village for that amount. Almost anyone would be willing to pay one percent per year of the value of their holdings if they were assured of adequate protection from fire. Considering the question from that angle the Village could use $2000. per year, in improving and maintaining their equipment. If that were done it would not take long to have an ultra efficient apparatus that would reduce fire hazard to a minimum. From our position at the present time, we need almost everything. A Fire Hall, Truck with Pumper equipped and an available supply of water $3000. would go a long way toward it, and it is to be hoped that something will be done before it is too late.

WEEKLIES TO THE RESCUE

(By B. T. R.)

Edmonton — Premier William Aberhart's threat to license the newspapers, which has been hanging over the heads of the weekly and daily press of Alberta for about six months, has now passed.

Final blow to the proposal came at the provincial Social Credit Convention recently, when a resolution calling for enforcement of licensing "in order to encourage accurate and unbiased reports of government activities" was tabled. "the table" being in this case a euphemism for the waste basket.

The recent caucus of Social Credit private members, it is known, also refused to approve press licensing.

One report indicates that press licensing was defeated in the Social Credit convention because of several editors of weekly newspapers who were present as public smelling necessary to store the truck in a public garage. Under such conditions it is impossible to keep the truck attentioned where it can be taken out in

MEDITATIONS FROM A MANAGER'S MUMBLES

Oh give me a sheet (of ice) where the locals can meet their opponents one by one, with nary a loss, said the Blue and White boss, Charlie Mitchell the poem ? is done or Rain, rain go away, come again some other day, my protegees, they want to play, rain, shifting winds, colder at night, slightly warmer to morrow. After a start like that the call'um can't get any worse so I might as well ramble on. It seems cold weather or not the local protogees of Charlie Mitchell are unable to get in a hockey game. They were scheduled to meet Jacksons at Simcoe last night but it seems that the Simcoe--St. Jude's game was also scheduled for the same evening on the same ice surface. Of course, that was impossible so the Rurals can wait. They've waited now until the schedule is practically completed and yet only three games have been played. It strikes me that perhaps the O.R.H.A. has a long ways to go yet before it will be the equal of the O.H.A. The mild winter has showed them up like a dirty ace. Possibly the Rural organization should not be criticized too greatly, considering the climatic conditions, but personally, I know of three games that could have been played and weren't, because of poor jurisdiction somewheres. Manager Hall, Truck with Pumper equipped and an available supply of water $3000. would go a long way toward it, and it is to be hoped that something will be done before it is too late. aging a hockey club certainly must be a headache to the man with other duties, such as Charlie Mitchell has and especially so this year. To properly lead a club you must be in constant connection with the head of the league and he finds this impossible. Thus Jarvis finds itself in fourth place in the five team Haldimand-Norfolk league with not so much as a single defeat.

IF IT'S HOCKEY YOU WANT :—

Well, if it is, you can rest assured that you will get it. Having received an invitation to enter a local team in the Walpole County League, it has been decided to do so. The league consists of Jarvis, Garnet, Chegonda and Nelles Corners. Each club plays two games a week, the games being played in the Hagersville Arena. The schedule will be drawn up and put into use immediately. Perhaps the Rural league would be wise in taking a leaf out of the "farmers" book. It wasn't so long ago that the rural organization was considered a group of "rubes" and they were proud of it. Now however, the O.R.H.A. has gone big time in many instances.

PLENTY OF MATERIAL FOR TEAM

It certainly is astonishing how many players can be rounded up from retirement and convinced that they still have a goal or two left in their wrinkly old hides. Then, there are a few more who have retired ten or twenty years too soon and have decided to make another attempt at fame and fortune. Last but not least, there is more than ample raw material floating around at the tender age of the 'teens looking for fame. At that age fortune doesn't count. Let these ambitious youths compete in an organized league, blended with age and experience and the accomplishment would not be excelled by a Stanley Cup victory. And then there is the fact that it is an AMATEUR league. They're hard to find nowadays. As soon as a schedule has been drawn up the "Record" will release it.

PASSING SCORES

Simcoe "Redskins" proved Thursday night that Brantford, St. Jude's were not going to find easy pickings in the newly Intermediate "B" league. Their seven to six victory over the Bell City looked mighty good to local hockey fans. Port Dover, leading the league at the present date had a tough proposition on their hands in front of them the same evening whereas they looked for a setup. Their three to two victory over the luckless Caledonians spoke volumes for the "Miners" improvement. Hagersville haveplayed but one game as yet in the schedule, a six to five overtime defeat at the hands of Simcoe. The big surprise of the week was the Simcoe Tiger Cub victory over the Quarrytown Juniors. This Simcoe victory was even more surprising than the intermediate victory. At the present time, the Brantford club is away out ahead of the other Juniors. Before the schedule is over, however, the stanging may be very close.

FAREWELL TO "STRATFORD STREAK"

Last Thursday night wrote the closing chapter in the brilliant, blazing career of the greatest of all centremen, Howie Morenz, insofar as hockey is concerned. Morenz, now on the sick bench, suffering from flu, says "The old man will be back" but it's with a wistful sigh that he does so. He knows that his years were numbered regardless and those bonos do not mend like they do in the bones. Indeed, it is a sad ending that Howie in his comeback this year, staged one of the greatest exhibitions of all time. Never again will we read those Saturday morning ads, hockey tonight. Toronto Maple Leafs vs. Howie Morenz and Co. Perhaps his forceful advent from the fastest sport in the world will be mourned by more fans over the entire circuit than the retirement of any other individual. Always a clean, gentlemanly player, Howie never was in line for the Lady Byng trophy, because his blinding speed and dexterity forced him into a certain amount of penalties. Several years ago in a radio interview, Howie stated that his N.H.L. idol while in his junior ranks was the then youthful Aurel Joliat. Little did he dream that before long he, Joliat and Johnny Gagnon would be the toasts of the N.H.L. as a scoring unit. Now the "Stratford Streak" is on his back and the odds are highly against his return, but yet Joliat, the "Mighty Atome" goes on. Volumes could be written about the colourful Howie if the adjectives were at one's command.

ODDS AND ENDS

Who would be a hockey manager ? Added to Charlie Mitchell's worries is the fact that Frank O'Donnell has forsaken the ranks of the Rurals to become a "Redskin". This week's candidate for the Lady Byng trophy is Gordon Drillon, of the Leafs. Bill Cowley of Boston, his chief rival, has lately been penalized, leaving Drillon in the lead. Personally, a victory by the Maritimer would be o.k. What the Leafs need is another line like Apps, Jackson and Drillon. Not necessarily as handsome. "Chuck" Silsworthorne has given us the slip for the present. Talmadge Wooley, Caledonia net guardian must find things very different from the nights he spent between the Hagersville uprights. Cayuga drubs Jacksons nine to four and the Norfolkers come right back with a four to two victory over the "Haldimen." They're very like the weather. There is estimated to be 80.000 badminton players in Canada. You see you don't count so many.

LOCALS ENTER NEW LEAGUE

Whether the local rural entry will be able to show their wares to the local fans or not, hockey will be place at hand for those who would root for the hometown boys. Jarvis has entered the County League which centres around Hagersville. All games are to be played in the Quarrytown arena. Besides Jarvis there are three other aspirants to a title: Cheapside, Garnet and Nelles Corners.

SIGN NEW PLAYER

When Jack Wark's Redskins take the ice in Brantford tonight against St. Jude's a new face will be seen in the line-up in the person of Frank O'Donnell, brother of Eddie, who plays with the Tiger Cubs. Frank, who did stellar work for Simcoe Juniors during the 1934-35 season, will be assigned to rear-guard duty. He has a reputation for being able to "take out" an opposing forward when necessary and should prove a valuable addition to the major's warriors. At present Frank is attending the Robinson Business College in Simcoe.

The Ottawa Spotlight

(By Wilfrid Eggleton)

Ottawa, February 2—The constitution has occupied the centre of the political stage in the past few days. It is not a subject which can ever expect to have a wide box-office appeal. You can write a fairly bright column about the abolition of hanging, or a new Canadian flag, or even Canada's defence policy. But what can you do with the legal and constitutional arguments, the lengthy historical reviews, the division of jurisdiction, and all the rest of it, in a review written for others than lawyers and politicians? Yet you can't ignore it. Once upon a time I taught Canadian history, and I confess I found the constitutional part of it pretty sleeding. Just the same, there is no choice: I shall have to devote some space to the subject now.

The matter was thrust into the centre of things by Mr. Bennett, who made, in the course of a cooperative and illuminating speech, the suggestion that a constitutional convention of the several parties, provincial and federal, be called to discuss amending the B.N.A. act. He apparently had in mind some such historic meeting as those at Quebec and Charlottetown at which the foundations of the present Dominion were laid. He took it for granted that the constitution needed revising. Most people, who have been in a position to see how the present Act stands in the way of reform, will agree with him. But how is it to be done? There must be reasonable unanimity of the nine provinces and the Dominion. Can it be attained? An effort was made last year, but when with the attitude of the Senate and the objections raised by several provinces, even that minor change could not be proceeded with. What hope would there be of
