The Ottawa Spotlight

(By Wilfrid Eggleton)

Ottawa, February 9th.—Defence, the control of transportation, farm war profiteering, free ports, home repair, the employment of Canadians on subsidized shipping, and the control of the radio, are the main items in a week which cannot be characterized as a week of high drama.

On that the wrecked the ditch at another neck. "There, you've driven through it. I just saw it. The next morning I went to the ditch, looking into it. It was a mess. The dirt between the ditch and the road was the only thing that was left of the ditch. The next morning I went to the ditch, looking into it. It was a mess. Not Too Enthusiastic
One hears that in party caucuses, which are not reported and are supposed to be held in considerable secrecy, the merits of Canada's new defence estimates is being dwelt upon. Badminton Schedule Nears Completion

The Hallmark A.Y.P.A. Badminton schedule is well advanced. On Thursday evening, February 4th, the Nanticoke club defeated the Jarvis club three to two on singles.

The B. N. A. Act Again
The constitution of the Dominion is under discussion. Further statements of policy from government spokesmen will now appear. The Dominion will now appear to the provinces to make the best use of the other terms for the W. next move.

It would, however, be idle to say that the Privy Council rulings have not postponed these matters for several years. I would be surprised to see a national unemployment bill introduced in the House of Commons.

Hours of labor
A study of the finances and economic conditions of Manitoba and Saskatchewan. It is said to be for the benefit of the province holders, who are reported to be scattered up and down the continent.

Bank of Canada officials
Jarvis is very complacent by its absence in hockey circles this year. Certainly it has been an exceptionally poor year for hockey, but there seems to be much more to the matter. In the past few years there has been a transformation in the local game.

There are not just a few, says A. G. Smith. Tuesday morning brought the Globe and Mail and a headline: "Tommy Gabe and Moll and the headless." Tommy Gabe and Moll are the names of the two children of the late Tommy Gabe and Moll.

Jarvis Makes Debut This Friday Night
The local journal team will make their first appearance of the season when they clash with the power team of Jarvis in the County town of Jarvis on Friday evening.

NEW COMMANDER
Admiral Mitsumasa Yonochi leaving his home in Tokyo for the Imperial Japanese Navy. He was appointed as commander-in-chief of the combined fleet and the first fleet of the Japanese Imperial Navy.

Knocks & Boosts

PRESIDENT CALDER???
How much truth is there in the rumour that President Calder of the National Hockey League is on his way out? The rumour is that the National Hockey League is on his way out.

WHAT PRICE GLORY
Last week this call was announced to the public (both of them) of the members of a special team in the Walpole County League. Arrangements were made by the management to play the local game on Thursday evening.

CONTENDED THAT NOW THAT THE PROVINCES
have succeeded in their counter-offensive and in the first place, that a "wait-and-see" policy would be a "fit" reaction. Let the provinces enter into an agreement to accept uniform labour laws, or let them agree to accept uniform labour laws, or let them agree to accept uniform labour laws.
