FARM NOTES

Conducted by PROFESSOR HENRY G. BELL With the Co-operation of the Various Departments of the Ontario Agricultural College.

Question 1—(a) "Should you apply fertilizer in the fall for spring crops, what would be the result?" (b) "What kind of fertilizer would you use on a lawn and how should it be used?" — J. M. West.

Trophy For His Outstanding Gridiron Plays

Larry Kelley great Yale end and retiring captain of the team, proudly holding the Hamman Trophy, presented him in New York for being outstanding player of 1936 football season.

Christmas Shopping Jams Herald Prosperity

State Street, Chicago, like all other great shopping streets in the United States, was jammed with Christmas shoppers who proved that depression is over. Here is seen at State and Madison Streets.

Story Didn't Help

There's still a lot of argument going on about Lexie Howard's performance in "Hamlet" on the New York Stage. Hollywood stars arriving in New York make a bee-line for the theater, whether it's good or bad, they want to see it for themselves.

Oxford's Diminutive Cox

Mary Katherine Maxwell, 18, pictured after testifying for her sister, Edith Maxwell, during trial at Wise, Va., for the murder of her father. Her testimony failed to sway jury and Edith was convicted for second time after received 20-year sentence.

Crabbed Upstairs

Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co. has resumed the option on the Ritchie Gold Mine property, east of the main Kinsland Lake camp. The large smelting company relinquished the option on December 14th last and since then has been taking Kruschen salt and now feels much better.

Writes Backwards

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va. — A "mirror-boy" whose mind forces his fingers to write backward letters backward, is puzzling physicians of this town.

Children Like To Use Hands

Nearly all children like to cut and carve, and it is in the hands of the child that the most interesting work is done.

Farm Notes

That the day is approaching when the Irish Free State need not fear in any other emergency is the war or any other emergency is the war or any other emergency is the war.

Alleged WIT

Rural Guide—Why didn't you shoot at that flock of birds as they flew by? Urban Hunter—You see, this is a brand new gun and I was afraid I would strain it by shooting at such a distant target before it is broken in.

CrUELTY TO BURGLARS

Newspaper making announcements of the money they overlooked in making the robbery. Patient—Your advice is superfluous. Doctor. I've lived in boarding houses ever since I left home, years ago.

CHATEAU

To those who talk and talk and talk. This proverb is apt; the steam that blows the whistle will never turn a wheel.

Convict

I am here for having two liberties. Victor—How do you enjoy your liberty? Jones—That man Smith is going to beat me out of my job.

Doctor

There's no need to worry about your wife. You have a different woman when she gets back from the hospital.

AN ENEMY WE ALL

I want to thank the few friends who voted for me. I was certainly surprised to find that I had so few friends in Mohler, L. L. Titus, from the Mohler, Missouri, Monitor-Index.

Sweet Potatoes In Essex

A new type of specialty crop graduated from the experimental to the commercial stage when Frank Walton and Forrest Monk, specialty farmers of Colchester St., shipped from Harrow the first carload of sweet potatoes ever grown in a Canadian farming district.

COAX AND DEMAND

A news item says that "housewives of New Zealand are demanding American electric refrigerators." But do they really "demand" down there? In Canada they coax.
