Former Resident
Doing Well in West

Rolla, B.C. July 4, 1937
Dear Editor:—
Will you please give me a space in your valuable paper?

As the regular season nears completion, it appears that "Hub" Saunders has the home run honours in the bag. His four circuit blows put him well ahead of George Miller.

TID-BITS OF THE DIAMOND BY JACK HORNE

Injuries, injuries! A nightmare to all baseball managers would over whether it's in the bushes of the majors, has struck the J. & W. Up until the present time, there has been very few injuries of any serious nature but in the past week or more there has been two very costly ones, both coming on the same night.

CLARK DESERVES HONOURABLE MENTION

It really took good concentration, no less, on my part before I picked Pulley ahead of Willie Clark. Clark is a natural behind the battery. That still doesn't convince me but the batting records to date give me a reason for my choice.

AND WHAT WILL THE MUSHBALLERS DO IN AUGUST?

What will be something worthy of serious consideration. The Mushballers do after July 7. There is a little doubt that the J. & W. scheduled games will be completed by July 17th, except for two postponed games.

OFF THE PRESS

Considering that this callup carried a highlight from the past week activities of the Jarvis and Walpole Softball League last week, it is continuing the practice of bringing you the highlight of the week in the J. & W. Last week it was "Wink" Dixon's one hit game.

Knocks & Boosts - BY - SIDELINE

From out of the west comes a distinct challenge to your commentator from T.C.M. of the Simcoe Reformer, and to the selecting of an All-Star team out of the Haldimand and Tobacco Belt League.

FRANK O'DONNELL'S TERRIFIC WALLPAPER PROVIDES VICTORY

Frank O'Donnell's terrific wall paper provided the victory for the Jarvis team in their recent game. The wall paper was a masterpiece of art and provided a great distraction for the opposing team.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

PICTURES EVERYBODY LIKES
The amateur who took this picture gave thought to it. The boys are his sons, but the appeal of the picture is universal.

THE statisticians tell us that there are now millions and millions of cameras everywhere in the world. The result is a picture glut. The amateur who took this picture gave thought to it. The boys are his sons, but the appeal of the picture is universal.

Some judges of amateur snapshots contend that scarcely one picture in a hundred is really good. The amateur who took this picture gave thought to it. The boys are his sons, but the appeal of the picture is universal.

It is the difference, for example, between a picture that is merely a record of a moment and a picture that is a work of art. The amateur who took this picture gave thought to it. The boys are his sons, but the appeal of the picture is universal.

Whether or not a camera user will venture beyond the field of personal interest and try to make pictures of general appeal, it is admitted that not all give evidence of attention to artistic composition, thought in the choice of subject, or care for the right moment to snap the shutter. The result is pictures that are commonplace in their appeal to others. Usually such pictures are taken as a close-up of a beloved infant with no qualities to distinguish it from snapshots of a thousand others.

To win snapshot prizes, camera users need to take pains to plan their pictures or at least exercise judgment in selecting a viewpoint.
