Junior Judging Competition To be Held at Caledonia

Will be Open to Farmers of Haldimand County

The annual Judging Competition held under the auspices of the Haldimand County Junior Farmers' Association and the Department of Agriculture will this year be held at Caledonia on Saturday next. May 29th, according to an announcement which has just been issued jointly by the Juniors and the Department of Agriculture. The purpose of the competition is to give the young farmers a practical knowledge of the value of their crops and to give them a chance to show their crops to the public. The competition will be held in the morning and will last for two days. The crops to be judged are: wheat, corn, soybeans, clover, alfalfa, timothy, and other forage crops. The prizes will be given to the winners in each class. The competition is open to all farmers in the county who are under 30 years of age. The entry fee is $1.00. The prizes are: a cash prize of $50.00 for the winner in each class, a certificate of appreciation, and a trophy. The competition is a very important one for the young farmers, as it gives them a chance to show their crops to the public and to receive recognition for their efforts. The competition is also a very educational one, as it gives the young farmers a chance to learn about the value of their crops and to receive advice from the judges.
