At Thorold, Ontario, are located those wonderful examples of engineering, the Great Twin Flight Locks on the Welland Ship Canal. Reading from the fore-ground are Numbers 4, 5, 6, with single lock Number 7 in the background. This construction enables boats up to 800 feet long to pass up and down the escarpment at the same time, with a minimum delay to navigation. Each lock raises or lowers a boat 46½ feet. It is interesting to compare these locks with those of the first canal built in 1829. The latter had 40 locks 110 feet long by 22 feet wide and with a depth of 8 feet. The present canal has only 8 locks but each is 820 feet long by 80 feet wide with a depth of 30 feet.
