The SNAPSHOT GUILDA SNAPSHOTS FROM THE AIR

THOSE who make air voyages without a camera miss a part of the thrill. You do not need an especially designed camera to obtain photographs from airplanes. An ordinary camera will get interesting pictures right through the window which you look through as you fly and make you a picture story of your trip that no end of verbal description can tell so vividly.

Make a few snaps about the airport before boarding your 'plane and then, unless you have very fast shutter speeds, wait before you shoot again till you are up at least 1,000 feet. Naturally the higher the 'plane is traveling the less rapidly will the earth slip by and snapshots showing the land can be made more easily. The most interesting views are taken when there are definite contrasts in the landscape, as when flying over lakes, rivers and towns.

If your camera is of the focusing type, set it at the "infinity" mark, and, on a clear day at 1,500 to 2,000 feet. On the light of this photographs of those light, cottony, cumulus clouds, and are gliding along well above them, make snapshots when you pass over rifts through which the landscape can be seen. To include a wheel of the 'plane, as in the picture above, adds realism and enhances the feeling of height. It identifies the picture at the earth slip by and snapshots showing the land can be made more easily. "My wife and I had the pleasure of spending a week-end at Pax Hih with Lord and Lady Baden-Powell and the World Chief Scout was in excellent health, full of energy, and discussing a long list of Scout engagements. Some of these were two years ahead.

This winter he will visit South Africa and Rhodesia. In 1939 he expects to attend a Scout Jamboree in the West Indies, and another in New South Wales, on the other side of the world. He also plans to attend the next World Rover Moot, to be held in Scotland in 1939.

"No, the old Chief is still the irrepressible, ever-youthful B.-P., and repressible, ever-youthful B.-P., and he's not for a moment thinking of going on the shelf."
