PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Belbeck spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Deer, at Otterville. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Holland, of Detroit, is spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. R. Shaver.

CARD OF THANKS

On behalf of the Ministerial Association which had charge of the Western Relief car loaded at Cayuga on Thursday last, we wish to express our sincere thanks to the residents of Jarvis and surrounding country for their generous gifts of vegetables, fruits and clothing and to Mr. W. Bailey for his kindness in trucking the same to Cayuga.

KILL! KILL! KILL!

On with the dance! Step on it, we are late! Hello, there are a couple of cars that have run into each other head on! Hurry past! There are dead and wounded people on the ground. Who has hit us? Is he a witness, or carry them to a hospital? Give her the gas! You can pass that truck before we go to the top of the hill! Hurry! Goosh, you almost hit that old lady! Why do people do these things? We might have been on the highway, anyway? They are all hen-minded. We can break through in that line of traffic. Give her the gun! Gee, that was horn and make noise that follow get where you want to go. Why the fool won't give us the right of way? He can't be going over forty-five. How can he expect to stay on the pavement at that pace?

At the United Church. Wesley United Church held the first meeting of the season in the form of a social evening on Tuesday last. Miss Marie Gowen took charge of the worship service, after which Mr. Sidney Drake gave a humorous read the members were required to correct an incorrect sentence.
