Orange Pekoe Blend

"Where am I?" he shouted into the eceiver. "Then give me the Maryland State Police quickly." He waited. "Maryland Police?" Terry's voice rang out. There is no time to lose.

I'm at a place called Miller's store.

I'm Terry Burke. I was kidnapped last night. There is a man wounded in a house not far from here; from Miller's store you pass a gas station booth shut. When Terry came out he

"Which way to Washington?" Terry velled, and the storekeeper motioned

At the city limits they saw a mo-

"I'm Burke, who was kidnapped, I've a bit. The chief will know all about

Terry followed to the police tele phone box. The policeman called and then gave the receiver to Terry.

"I've got to talk to Kelly of Nev York," Terry said. "This is Burke."

Would He Be In Time?

excitedly.

Pop Clark's New York Blues | houses and, yes, there was a store.

are a 200 to 1 shot, Terry Burke being | Terry jumped out and helped Pietro the only sports writer to give them a inside the store. He darted for the chance at the pennant. As the sched- telephone booth. ule is played out the stars of the teams opposing the Blues are singled out for spectacular death on the playisoning, or are put out of commission by serious injury. Whitper, Philadelphia pitcher, is shot through the heart; four Boston players are sent to the hospital by the wrecking of their taxi; Dirkin, Chicago's star batter, is poisoned, and Pietro, Chicago bat boy disappears; Scotter, St. Louis pitching ace, is poisoned; Rawlins, Chicago manager, is hanged in the on that road. Now get this. There hotel room adjoining his own. When will be an attempt to kill Larry Doyle Penny, Detroit's star pitcher, refuses to play against the Blues, baseball's No," impatiently, "I don't know how Czar calls a meeting of club owners. Terry Burke has had beats on most is important. See if you can get hold of these sensational murders for the of Kelly of the New York detective Star and Detective Kelly at first suspects both him and Larry Doyle, the the Washington pigeon—you know the Blues' rookie shortstop. Clark sends

One that has disappeared—files over the field, have a man there who is a good shot. Before that bird can get too close to Doyle, shoot it and At Clark's suggestion, the owners ask Terry to help them uncover the murgrab-" Terry pulled the door of the der gang and he agrees. Larry is in love with Frances Clark, Pop's pretty I took Pietro by the hand and rushed daughter, and Terry with Alice An- | toward the ear. drews. Big Boy Planer, Cleveland's all around star, is poisoned and incapacitated, but lives. Terry outline his friend, before the crucial series Terry fears Larry is marked for death

"We ought to hit a village or some as he raced 'round a curve, the rea passing driver cursed at him, but he

Send for Information and Sample Lesson

Row to nake Smart Clothes for Myself
How to Become a Professional Dressmaker Advanced Desagnaking and Designing Fords and Cookery Ton Room Management

Issue No. 44 - '37

"What has Kelly told you?" Terry

Cainer broke in. "I'm not goin shortstop as we are in line for the World Series. That's why I took Doyle out of the line-up today . . ." the youngsters will want to be out too. However, this is just about the best time for mother to throw a Larry's voice broke in. "We'll have to stop this wholesale butchery somehow. Burke thinks he knows how to do it, and if I can be the party at home for the young gang so that when irate neighbours wonder who broke their front gate and created other havie, you can be right-eously indignant, knowing that your Johnny and George and Bobby were at home on the night in question. decoy it is okay by me."

derly. "It's something bigger than we are, Frances. It's the game." Pop's eyes turned to Frances. The very thing he had feared for her was happening. She was playing second fiddle to a baseball man's first and only love, the game. He put his arm about her tenderly.

"But, Larry," she said hopelessly. "Frances," Larry pleaded, "don't say it like that! Please. I thought you would stand with me always. "I'm with you," she said after a moment; "only I don't want to lose you. Larry, why must it be you?"
"Because he's a real baseball man," and take the first turn left, then the first left again. It's the only house > said. "What is the score?" "Three-three," Cainer answe "And the Blues are playing the best ball they have played all season." "But the Feds have got to win," Terry said. He turned to Kelly. "Did scheme?" (To be Continued.)

> 1 egg, well beaten 1 teaspoon vanilla % cup milk

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift to-gether three times. Cream butter oroughly, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add chocolate and blend; then add egg and vanilla. Add flour alternately with milk, a small amount at a time. Beat after each addition The skunk was exterminated at Orange Butter Frosting.

Orange Butter Frosting Grated rind of 1 orange Grated rind of 1/2 lemon 14 cup orange juice

3 cups confectioners' sugar, sifted Add orange and lemon rind to So silent is the shadowed wood, orange juice and allow to stand 10 A quail call echoes in the sky; minutes. Strain. Combine lemon juice, egg yolk, salt, butter, and confectioners' sugar. Add orange juice

For small cakes, Chocolate Ma uerites will prove very popular. Chocolate Marguerites 14 teaspoon each soda and salt 14 cup brown sugar, firmly packed nuts. Turn into a greased small fancy pan. Place pecan half on each. Bake in moderate oven 375 degrees F. 10 minutes. Makes 2 dozen cakes.

ppreciated dainty for the Hallowe'en party are Jelly Jack-'O-Lantl package quick-setting orange jelly powder

6 marshmallows, flattened make eyes, nose and mouth of jack o-lantern face. When jelly is firm place marshmallow in centre of each glass and cover with peach half, placing face-side up. Pour remain-ing jelly over peaches; chill until

Casserole of Vegetables (6 Servings) cupful diced potatoes cupful diced celery 1 cupful green peas 1 cupful lima beans medium onion, chopped to cupful rice cupful canned tomatoes

Home Hints By LAURA KNIGHT

On the night when witches ar goblins and black cats are abroad

The children do enjoy this evening of make-believe and appreciate it when their parents can enter into the spirit of Hallowe'en. Let them have a party, dressed in weird costumes dug out of attic trunks, give them plenty of games such as ducking for apples in a tub of water and pinnng the tal on the donkey. They can pop corn at the open grate, pull candy or make taffy apples too. But the grandest part of the evening to them goodies that apeal particularly

The Chocolate Fudge Cake, for which we are giving the recipe below, is an old favorite, especially for parties. On Hallowe'en it comes dressed for the occasion in a new or-

Chocolate Fudge Cake

them will be the refreshments so give to children.

ange colored frosting.

HALLOWE'EN 4 Oxo cubes GOODIES 2 cupsful boiling water Dissolve the Oxa cubes in the boil-The Goblins Will Get You if You Don't Watch Out redients. Turn into casserole

Negroes Choose Queerest Names

"Sardine," "Pantaloon," "Malar ia" Are Often Met With in British Outposts If a prize were offered for the race with the strangest names, negroes would win hands down. All over the world there are black men with names which we consider fantastic. In Papu for example, where the authorities now give a bonus to mothers of large families, many youngsters have been named Bonus.

Malaria is the Christian name of the same name as a dangerous fever Name Themselves A sugar plantation in British Gui ana had, among its negro workers. Whiskey Emmanuel Tomkins, John Pantaloon, Queen Elizabeth, Frank Locust and Prince Albert. The parents of Prince Albert took the name from that of the man who appeared on the thousands of young American negresses, who do not seem to mind having labels of red tins of a popular American tobacco. The late Sir Thomas Lipton had among his servants two Singalese souths named Erin and Shamrock, and the Mashona Boys of Rhodesia are fond of naming themselves after Bri tish coins or things found in the kitchen of the white man. Sixpence is the avourite, closely followed by Tickey (South African slang for a threepen-Wistful Chap "Nasty"

Plate, Dish, Knife, Fork, Spoon, Cof fee, Milk and Sardine are often en-countered. A British official's wife has related that the tallest youth she had ever seen came to ask for a job antil smooth. Bake in greased pan, as Sardine. She engaged him, and re-8 x 8 x 2 inches, in moderate oven 325 degrees F. 1 hour. Cover with once found a wistful little chap at the back door, seeking employment. His name was Nasty. Winter Prelude

The smoky wind, raw throaed, blows A harsher note, with sterner spite; The acorn stains the squirrel's nose, The bee planes home in solo flight

Yet in this solitary place

I hear deep voices sound a tune That in the long and far-off days I never heard in June. -Alex R. Schmidt, in The Gypsy prompt service, order from your local HAMCO dealer— he deserves your fuel business.

Your Local Dealer's Name Appears

Elsewhere In This Issue

California. The germical tested on two kinds of ge a pus producer and the organism that causes typhus was tested on embassions. 16-24. TEXT-Walk by the as tested on embryoni shall not fulfill the lust Galatians 5:16.

SON IN ITS SETTING The epistle of Paul to the switten about A.D. 57.

Epistle to the Corinthians about 59 A.D., while the they were engaged in the n germ-killing tests and init ound to be valuable for ger athe year 61 A.D. The tests were made primar termine which germicide was The epistle to the Romans lome from the city use in surgical operations. reece; the First Epis-nthians was written

There are more than 1,100 kinds of trees growing in th ians was written ee Thess. 5:5). The efer to our Lord's First IT'S GREA ss away and the spel purity comen the Lord Jesus east off the works of AT WORK bt the word darkwhen you've found a way to ease the pains of off as the sleeper and doit

inexpen

You can pay as high as yo — is "Aspirin".

Simply take 2 "Aspirin" with a half glass of water. I if necessary, according to dire Usually this will ease sue in a remarkably short time.

trade-mark of the Bayer C Limited, of Windsor, Ontal for the name Bayer in the cross on every to

Demand

HAMCO

nd wantonness. It the Lord Jesus t walk in darkthe Lord Jesus not provision for die of famine. estion perish for Kill your spiritiple advocated by that the unrightthe apostle clearand elsewhere, is one deceived: neither men. 10. Nor washed. It possibly sen they were baptized, ted the Lord Jesus hese sins from their sense of dedicated o matter how great, enumerated. s us, the three per-of carnal affections. occupied, preoccuesh lusteth again

NG DRINK OF REAL BEEF FLAV

and the Spirit against the these are contrary the one withat ye may not do the Competition Perils

Norway What

The Nerwegian whaling indust upon which about 80,000 people ing the industry and a recent development has been German recruitment of the most highly skilled Norwegian gunners who have been disappointed U. S. Ambassador "In a Hole" are led by the Spirit, ye are not un-der the law. Paul does not mean that we shall live a life in which the flesh plays no part, but that we shall not be slaves to fleshly desires, but shall live in our bodies as the Holy Spirit ictates, not as bodily desires dictate. This conflict is not present in the lives of unbelievers. 19. Now the works of the flesh are anifest, which are these: fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness. 20 Idolatry, sorcery, calousies, wraths, factions, divisions, parties. 21. Envyings, drunkenness revellings, and such like; of which forewarn you, even as I did forewarn you, that they who practise such things shall not inherit the king-dom of God. A fourfold classification of the fifteen sins here mentioned has been suggested: (1) sensual vices; (2) religious vices connected with heathendom; (3) malevolent vices, enmities, strife, jealousies, etc (4) vices of excess or intemperance.

Walk in the Holy Spirit What should be given the greater emphasis in this lesson is not the vices which we are to put away, and deny, and triumph over, though these certainly should be spoken of, but the salso the word darks as also the powers of the personal spiritual 'rularkness,' who tempt the gasify its tendencies to the power and under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit t resulting from these gared as a night robe is a person, the Third Person of the Godhead. It is by the Holy Spirit that we are indwelt. As a person And let us put on he has a most intimate knowledge of "There is the each one of us. As the Holy Spirit, omingly, as in "All these graces spring out of on 22. But the fruit of the Spirit is hambering. (Products this word and wantonness. It who are led by the Spirit not only do not do the works of the flesh, but they bring forth the fruit of the Spirit." Love. This stands first, the root of all other graces, love for God and love for one another. Joy. "Joy is opposed to dullness, despondency, indifference, and all the dethe world so much be world structions and remorses which are praise wells out of the jeyful heart. Peace. This is the first peace with God, which has been obtained for us by the Lord Jesus Christ. This peace leads to perfect tranquility in the human heart. Longsuffering. "It enables us to bear injury without at once avenging ourselves." Kindness. The word means "the soft answer."

or the culture of per." Goodness. It is difficult to distinguish between goodness and kindness, though probably the latter erit the kingdom of | word means the actual, visible manifestation and exercise of the virtue of A person who lives kindness. Righ here one might remember that love, joy, and peace are virtues that we have in ourselves by into the kingdom the Holy Spirit, without particular regard to others, except God; while longsuffering, kindness, and goodness te, nor abusers of are never developed except as we are in contact with others. They are not is, nor drunkards. virtues that have to do with our selves as we are living among men

23. Meekness. "A grace of the soul which consists in habitual submission to the dealings of God, arisand the mind's own readiness to sin. Hence then, we are to pass over the insults and wrongs inflicted by men as permitted by God, and a part of his discipline." That is, the holding stif.ed' as referring to in of the passions and appetites. noral righteousness of Against such there is no law. You the name of the statute-books of any Christian nation globes with the south pole at the top and in the Spirit legislating against the virtues here matter how great, enumerated.

| Statute-Dooks of any Christian lattor and the north pole at the bottom of the forms are attached permanent-ly to the sea-bed, but the feather stars

By crucifying the flesh and its passions and lusts is meant taking a deliberate and positive stand against The meaning simply is outgoing shall not conmence of carnal effections. be dead indeed unto sin, but to be alive unto God.

Bare-Hand Fight

got a shock when he found he had heard over both NBC networks from 10.00 to 11.30 p.m. The change was made in answer to requests from music lovers in every part of the country, and assures the artists of an exceptionally large Saturday night audience. To his long list of comedy discoveries, Rudy Vallee can add another, in the person, or should I say persons, of the Stroud Twins. Although these two boys, Clarence and Claude by name, have been taking the business of being funny seriously for some years now, they confined their activities to vaudeville and night clubs. Their first radio appearance was on the Vallee Variety Hour a few weeks ago. After only two performances on this program, they have been signed up as regular members of the Chase and Sanborn Hour, broadcast over the NBC-Red Network every Sunday at 8.00 p.m. Chase and Sanborn also feature Ed-Martha! Chase and Sanborn also feature Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy, two more Vallee proteges. Just had a pleasant chat with Maurice Rapkin, a pleasant chat with Maurice Kapkin, program director of Toronto's CKCL. Rap. has a pretty busy week. Sunday nights you'll hear his voice over the Community Sing broadcast at 9.00 p.m. Incidentally, the show moves to its old spot at the Century

A new radio game is in progress at CKCL called Criss Cross Clues, at which a description of a well-known figure is given and the listeners must phone in the answer. Smart gifts are offered as prizes. November 6th will see the start of N.H.L. hockey

Theatre. Another surprise is Louise Robertson's, known to many of you as "The Girl Friend," returns to the show. It's a treat to see Louise cut stockings and such. Tickets are free, folks. Just step right up and ask for games. The presieve program will bring Foster Hewitt's description of Canada's national game over a net-work of Toronto stations. We under-stand the Leafs and the Red Wings will battle it out at Maple Leaf Gar dens on this day. November 6th will also bring to radio listeners the opening of the Motor Show, hed at the Automotive Building. Canadian National xhibition. Maurice Rapkin will do the interviewing, and will be accompanied by a guest announcer, whose identity is being held secret. The program will be aired at 8.30 p.m. On Novembtr 8th, Jim Hunter will be heard from the Motor Show doing description of the doings between 9.00 and 10.00 p.m., over

Around

The Dial

RADIO HEADLINERS

SCOOP! -Martha Burke, charming young pianist-arranger-conductor of an all-male orchestra, is leaving shortly for Boston, to become the wife of a lawyer. Congratulations Aubrey Proctor, CKCL mikeman, is conducting a new series of progrems over that station specially designed for drama lovers. Aubrey gives informal chats on drama of the day, together with authentic information on great stars of the past.

Paying a visit to CFRB, we ran across a group of old cronics—four boys known as The Ragamuffins. The oys are heard Monday nights in a little jam session of their own. Harry Templar, Alfie Anning, Tommy El-well and Georgie Boyd play homemember a time, not to far back, when lar so that the neighbors couldn't complain about the racket. Between them, they play two guitars, two washboard, etc. for traps, imitation of a trumpet, and sing in harmony. up on the stage—all dressed up in short skirts, pig tails, ribbons, rolled ducts the Ponds Orchestra, has taken them. Rapkin does the commercial ation out of them. George Boyd is announcements and Stan Francis, the M.C. work.

Hunt's Savarin Orchestra, is heard every night except Sunday over CKCL in half-hour dance music pro-grams. Jimmy features his twopiano team during the program. Not these boys in hand, and has really formed an efficient musical organiz-ation out of them. George Boyd is Professor Changes Marriage Advice Now He Thinks A Man Sho

Professor Robert E. Rogers' advice to Those were the words with which Rogers sent Massachusetts Institute of Technology's graduating class of '29 out into a world which was soon to prove both cruel and cool to many of "Now," declared the chubby, cheerful member of M.I.T. English depart-men in an interview; "I've decided the advice didn't work out as well as I expected.

"Remember, I offered the advice in the spring of '29. The picture changed that fall."

The depression, Rogers reported, served as a test tube for his formula and found it faulty. "You see," he said, "by marrying the boss' daughter, the young man took the chance of incurring the boss' liabilities. And I don't want to accept the responsibility of suggesting college men take that chance."

Canadian Arctic Maps Improved sult of Year's Exploration been added to the map of the Canadian Arctic through explorations this O. Bray and P. D. Baird.

They came out on the mission ship St. Teresa, in September after a year in the Arctic but intend returning 'down north" again as soon as pos Bray and Baird, who are cla bird and rock specimens at the Canad-ian archives, were members of Man-ning expedition, from Cambridge Uni-

Many Inaccuracies Existed It was found that many inaccuracie existed on maps of the western coast-line of Baffin Island and at least 2,000 square miles of territory were added. Baffin Island was found to be a huge deposit of limestone.

Baird, a student of geology, doubt if mineral deposits will be found in commercial quantities on Baffin Is Den diplomats cannot talk themselves out of being hit by a bolic in China, so they play safe and skid for a dug-out when the planes start droning overhead. The cameraman snapped Nelson T. Johnson, the United States Ambassador to China, on September 25, stepping out of his private dug-out on the Embassy grounds in Nanking during out of his private dug-out on the Embassy grounds in Nanking during the building affords natural light from so many directions that both unnecessary glare and heavy shadows are eliminated.

New Lighting System Eliminates Shadows

tail. Then, with his hands badly injured, he dragged the vanquished croc to a pumping station where it was killed and skinned by Mr. E. Caudwell and the Rev. A. Bell.

but they are still revealed in great numbers by deep-sea dredging. Most become free-swimmers in their later

As an air-raid precention Nottingarms which will continue to work through the earth even if a bomb des-life.

Australians Want Upside-Down Globe

To simplify things when teaching geography the Australians want to turn the world upside-down. That is

24. And they that are of Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with positions of the various continents positions of the various continents positions of the shape of a globe is and seas, for the shape of a globe is the shape of the world. All flat maps distort the actual position of one place in its relation with another, since it is impossible to make allowance for the curve of the earth's sur-

Norway Whaling

one of the country's most importan dependent, is threatened with collapse Norwegian ship owners are meeting increased foreign competition, espe cially from Germany, which is devel-oping a whaling industry. Labor dis-putes over wages are further hinder-have already been sold to Germany of the river, where it lashed and the Norwegian Government is now wildly with its jaws and tail. intervening in negotiations between ship owners and workers to save the industry.

Wildly with its jaws and tall.

Charlie bound its jaws together with some string bark from a tree, and also lashed its back legs to its

With Crocodile An aboriginal named Charlie had an under-water battle with a six-foot crocodile at King River, West Australia-and the croc only came sec-Charlie went in search of a baby crocodile, for the natives find these good to eat. He saw what he thought was a three-foot specimen, and dived into the river to catch it. Charlie challenged a half-grown croc in mor-tal combat, but he was ready to make Now ship cwners threaten to sell the whalers and floating factories abroad. Many of the biggest ships have already have al a fight of it.

troys their cable.

Archer Fine Cut

through one of the end gates and worked their way over to the Blues' rooms. Terry swung the door open and crashed in, followed by Pictro and the policeman. There was a gasp of surprise. Doyle and Frances were standing sde by side, Pop Clark, puzzled and worried, looked at them. Kelly held the center of the floor. Cainer, the Washington manager, was standing just behind Doyle.

"You tell them, Burke," Kelly said.
"They won't listen to me." "They won't listen to me."

SEND ALL DYEING TO US

Bring New Color to Clothes and home

What clothes are you tired of — what curtains look faded? Have them dyed — but only by experts — Toronto's famous dyers. We give things new life and color. All questions as to materials, colors or costs gladly answered and charges paid one way on all orders. Only one Parker's — only one address.

PARKER'S DYE WORKS, LTD. Dept. 2 - 791 Yonge St., Toron life so you can catch the murderers," Frances said indignantly.

"We'll protect him." He turned to Larry. "it's tough on you, Larry, but if you won't go through with it we will never eath the murderers. We can't prove a thing. Once they find out that I have escaped they will quit and we are licked. You don't want a repetition of this season, do you?"

o run the risk of losing my best

Frances tugged at his arm. "Don't be heroic," she begged. "I'm not heroic," Larry said ten-

Pop said and there was a ring of pride in his voice, and understanding. "Well, then, that's settled," Terry you tell Pop of his part in the cups sifted cake flour teaspoons baking powder i teaspoon salt 1/2 cup butter or other shortening cup sugar 2 squares unsweetened chocolat

Tin Can Fixes Skunk P. M. Beaupre, of Belleville, was awakened during the night by strange noises . Visions of midnight bandits crossed his mind but it was not until daylight he realized how great had been his peril. A skunk was found in his yard. Its nose was caught in a torcycle policeman, and Terry slam- tin can. Fortunately it had not resorted to its usual tactics when in

"I had a call to watch out for you," long range and buried deep. "I'm afraid I'll be too late. Ha anything happened at the park? I'd like to get in touch with Kelly of New Frock With Dainty Princess Lines Serves For All-Day-long Wear! York. Can you get me through?"
"There is a call box down the road

By Anne Adams

Like a cheery little frock with a gay outlook on life? Then here's just the captivating model to brighten up your mornings and serve faithfully as a "willing helpen" while serve faithfully as a willing helper" when you're rushing through your household tasks all day long. And what's more, Pattern 4350 is as easy as A B E to tern 4350 is as easy as A B C to make up, for its simple parts can be cut and stitched in a jiffy! Spicy bits of accent are the little "pouch" pockets, bow ends, and puffed-up sleeves that may be accented by a dash of ric-rac braid. Pretty flowered percale, chambray or dimity.

Pattern 4350 is available in misses' and women's stage let 15.

Pattern 4350 is available in misses' and women's sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 takes 4½ yards 36-inch fabric and 2½ yards re-rac braid. Illustrated step by step sewing instructions included.

Send twenfy cents (20c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly size, name, address and style number. Send your order to Anne Adams, Room 425, Wilson Building, Toronto.

teaspoons lemon juice egg yolk 14 teaspoon salt 3 tablespoons butter antil of right consistency to spread. Beat until smooth and spread on cake. Makes enough frosting to cover tops and sides of two 9-inch

2 eggs, well beaten 2 tablespoons butter 11/2 squares unsweetened chocolate

1 cup finely cut pecans Sift flour once, measure, add sods and salt, and sift together three times. Beat sugar gradually into beaten eggs. (Melt butter with chocolate and add to egg mixture; blend. Add flour gradually; then

A light, easily-prepared and much pint warm water Dried currants 6 halves canned peaches, drained Dissolve jelly in warm water. Fill wide sherbet glasses about one-third full and chill. Press currants into rounded side of each peach half to firm. Serves 6. HOT SUPPER DISH

For that range or heater which burns hard fuel, try HAMCO range-size Coke. Easy to regulate — lasts all night — picks up quickly in the morning. Less labor with HAMCO, too — lighter to handle, and fewer cahes. You'll be delighted with this dusiless, smoke-less, money-saving Coke. For prompt service, order from the old-fact efficient germ destroyer wh with a number of the new cides. The tests were mad A. J. Salle, assistant pro-