

"The Leashed Guns of Circle L"

by Perry Westbrook

SYNOPSIS: Slim Loyale is paroled from prison after serving 18 months for a crime he did not commit. He returns to his Circle L ranch to find his father dead and sinister forces at work, trying to make him violate his parole to prison. The Brockwells and their gang are plotting to gain possession of Circle L ranch and the property of Mona Hale, a neighbor and life-long friend of Slim Loyale.

Slim discovers that Sheriff Starbuck has joined the plot against him. With the help of Dakota Blue and his cowboys, Slim Loyale defeats the land-grabbers to do their worst.

CHAPTER XI
"Don't take any fool chances, Roy," said Slim over his shoulder as he reined away. "Should they get yuh, I'm comin' after 'em with hot lead, parole or no parole." But Roy was not listening. He was climbing into Slim's saddle and urging the gray away into the darkness. Good old Roy! What a little, fire-eating fighting machine the jolly fisherman was.

Viewing the affair calmly, Slim knew that there was little chance of Roy getting the worst of the deal. He could be as wary and as cunning as an Indian when the occasion required. Tonight, however, instead of what to expect, the odds were greatly in favour of Roy coming through with flying colors.

"So Slim rode home, taking the roundabout route Roy had suggested, and arrived at the Circle L ranch buildings without seeing a single soul. As he drew up at the corrals and dismounted, a dark figure sauntered over from the lunkhouse. It was Dakota Blue, and he said "Where's Slim? Why—what

Status of Women Has Improved in Half A Century

League of Nations' Report Shows There Has Been Considerable Advance Made — Votes Won, Education More Widespread

A world-wide survey of the status of women now underway by a committee established at the 1928 League of Nations Assembly at Geneva, is another step forward in the international crusade begun 50 years ago by the International Council of Women to elevate women's position in the home, community and professional field.

Notes for women have been reduced, pre-natal care improved and investigations into infanticide, education and traffic of women have brought forth valuable contributions.

Position 50 Years Ago
From the report of the honorary recording secretary of the council at the international meeting of delegates in July, comes an insight into the status of women 50 years ago. It discloses—

Sunday School Lesson

LESSON XI
THE SIN OF COVETOUSNESS
Exodus 20:17; Luke 12:15-21
1 Timothy 6:6-10
GOLDEN TEXT: "Thou shalt not covet." Exodus 20:17

THE LESSON IN ITS SETTING
Time — The Ten Commandments were given in 1498 B.C. The words were given in Exodus 20 during the first Sabbath of Passover in December, A.D. 65.
Place — The Ten Commandments were given from Mount Sinai, the words taken from the eastern side of the Jordan River. It is not known exactly where Timothy was when he received this letter.

It should not be covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is his neighbor's. The commandment "Thou shalt not covet" passes beyond the domain of civil magistracy into that intellectual domain of motive, desire and thought, where God alone is Lord and also Judge.
