Must Prove Their Diligence
On his arrival the field marshal was handed bread, wine and ham by the enthusiastic population, these being the chief products of the district.

Goering told his welcomers:
"The Austrian four-year plan is not intended merely to check temporary unemployment but to lay permanent foundations for a better and happier life for coming generations.

"Austrians must now prove to the wife of a railway official of Sarájer, ness is a lie."

Mr. Edward A. A. Shackleton, of London, England, and his bride, formerly Miss Betty Marguerite Homan, daughter of the late Captain Co. E. Homan and Mrs. Homan, of Burley, New Forest, Hampshire, England, leaving St. Paul's Church, Knightsbridge, London, following their wedding which took place on April 27th. The bridegroom youngest son of the late Lady Shackleton, recently completed a lecture tour in the United States and Canada, and happier life for coming generations.

"Austrians must now prove to the world that their proverbial slovenling had happened and asked for a drink."
