At the next table, like a modernist doll propped beside a dowager, sat Patty Arundel. She threatens to be sick Paris was excited by news of the Patty Arundel. 'tty had summed up her fellow passengers with the hard disfavour of twenty. She thought them old and stuffy. Clare she regarded as a Victorian siren, a silly woman who did not know that love was never mentioned by name between two modern young people. "Sticky," thought Patty to herself.

"Johnny" — Patt raised her voice—"there goes Mrs. Langford."
She found that she was not drawing Johnny's attention to Clare—it was already there. He blushed slightly, surprised mis own thoughts. ### WAKE UP LIKE A CAVE MAN Feel Full of Life—No More Tired, Dull, Heavy Mornings

Keep your liver healthy and you'll feel great every morning. When you wake up feeling "rotten" your liver is out of order. Your liver clears the blood of poisons, separates the nourishing part of your food from the waste. Supplies energy to muscles, tissues and glands—gives out bile, the body's laatilive, helps atomach, kidneys and intestines to work properly. A mere bowel hovement isn't enough. "Fruit-a-lives" made from fruits and herbs, will strengthen and build up your liver like nothing else will. You'll be amazed how well you are every morning. Try Fruit-a-lives. All druggists.

It was half-past five. "Sorry. Seamen must work. No time for dalliance now."

"But now is always a lovely time."
Clare stretched languorously in the depths of her deck chair.

Dick swung along the deck, a tall, blue figure tacking against the wind. Clare watched day melt into night. She could see Macduff roaming up and down, puffing at his pipe. "I wonder if I could make him talk," she speculated idly. But he looked so forbidding that she decided to leave him alone and go down to dress.
