and Joseph Abraham were ordained elders.

Organ Purchased
In 1878 an organ was procured after a vote in its favor being taken by the congregation. Mr. McGuire received a call to the congregation in 1881 and the congregation was without a minister for nearly three years. In 1884 Rev. John Wells was inducted as minister and in 1886 the corner stone of the present church was laid. The new church was not completed until the following year and the opening services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Miller, Anthony Ineson, James B. Wilson and John Mitchell were organists. In 1891, during the past year, the church was without a minister for nearly three years. In 1894 Rev. John Wells was inducted as minister and in 1896 the corner stone of the present church was laid. The new church was not completed until the following year and the opening services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Miller, Anthony Ineson, James B. Wilson and John Mitchell were organists.

In 1898 James Davidson, David Allen and John Thompson were ordained elders. Mr. McGuire resigned the charge in 1903 and Rev. D. M. Buchanan accepted the call from the congregation and was inducted into the pastorate in 1904. In 1906 Dr. Buchanan resigned and Rev. J. H. Evans was inducted. In 1908 the Knox congregation celebrated the golden jubilee of the inception of the church in 1858. During the past thirty years five ministers have occupied the pulpit of Knox church. Rev. Mr. McGuire was inducted as minister in 1881 and he was followed by Rev. Mr. Hare in 1916. Rev. W. T. Brown was inducted in 1923 and replaced until church union took place in 1928. Dr. B. Marshall was inducted as minister and had charge of Knox church until 1929, when Rev. G. Lloyd Evans was called by the congregations Jarvis and Walpole. Mr. Evans is still located here.
