JARVIS HIGH SCHOOL DEFEAT SELKIRK IN ONE-SIDED TILT

Girls' Teams To Meet in Selkirk on Friday

After being beaten very decisively in their field day events, Jarvis were able to get a little revenge on Selkirk by defeating them Twenty to one in an inter-school softball match here Tuesday afternoon.

The score alone describes the game. It was a free scoring affair on the part of Jarvis with all the players sharing the honour. A return game will probably follow sometime next week.

The local girls are scheduled to meet Selkirk girls in the latter's home town to-morrow.

Following are the batteries for the above game: Selkirk, Messacar and Svent; Jarvis, G. Miller and Leng.

James Keenan of Mount Hamilton was appointed Police Officer of Hagersville at a meeting of the council held on Tuesday evening.
