Edward M. Nicolls, well known to everyone in this district passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Emma Gardiner, of Toronto, on Monday in his Ninety-sixth year.

The late Mr. Nicolls gained fame in this district as a violinist years ago and was a familiar figure to everyone. He was born near Kingston, and before moving to Toronto twenty years ago, he was a resident of Simcoe where he was in the contracting business.

He is survived by two sons and a daughter, Edward, of Port Dover, Mannie of Hagersville and Mrs. Emma Gardiner, of Toronto.

The funeral was held from Austin's funeral parlors in Simcoe yesterday afternoon with service at 2.30 P.M.

THOS. E. KYLE CO. FAIR

but as the players are resting between games we grow restless so we decide to do a little exploring on our own hook. The press box, which, by the way is a new one, draws little of our attention, except to text the truth in the "wet paint" card on the green enclosure but far above us, the broadcasting booth, lies our goal. At the top of the grandstand we take to the "catwalk" and from here we can see the old press box. and what we thought was a vacant room, but Curred.

The car hit the truck on the left side at the back, smashing the front end of the car very badly. The impact turned the truck over on its side, upsetting milk in all directions. Damage to the truck was confined chiefly to the body and racks. No one was hurt in the accident.
