The odds are almost even now that Hank Greenberg will better Babe Ruth's record of sixty home and thirty-eight games to collect his fifty. Greenberg has twenty more games in which to hit eleven hom-ers, but, if Ruth poled out ten four base hits in sixteen games, Hank should have at least an even chance to break Ruth's record to break Ruth's record. ST. PAUL'S RECTOR GIVEN FAREWELL

In the pulpit you have faithfully presented the precepts of our religion have warned us against the evils that continually beset us and have earnestly pleaded with us to seek our true happiness in the paths of rectitude and peace.

In the various organizations of our church you have been an inspiration to carry on the worthy work which they undertake. Especially the A.Y.P.A. which was almost dormant. mant upon your arrival, have you excelled, and when its very existance was threatened by lack of mem bers, you rallied the cause by enlisting the best talent of our neighboring churches
