Easter Day at Wesley United

This pledge seems very reasonable for any individual and there can be no doubt that the news agencies will soon be careful of the literature exposed for sale if they know that thousands of our people and of the Roman Catholic Church have pledged themselves in such a way. There will be little need for further government legislation or action. Already more than one hundred nasty publications originating in the United States are refused admission to Canada by the Canadian Government. But, there are some publications printed in Canada which are difficult to deal with. However, if our people resolve not to read them the agents will no longer want to import them.

Some people may not be able to give much assistance in the way of calling the attention of the authorities to harmful literature, but they should do whatever is in their power. When they find undesirable publications for sale they can send copies to our Church's Council for Social Service, which will know whether police action or governmental action is the wise course. The way in which most of us can help is by fostering the use of good literature, including religious papers. "Church"

AN EASTER

"Listen to our Easter song— 'God is love, God is love,' Now and all the winter long— 'God is love." Birds come back as they are bidden Children sing their Easter song— 'God is love."

May the spirit of Jesus be in us, helping us to be kind and loving and true, and the sort of boys and girls Thou
