"The Leashed Guns of Circle L"

by Perry Westbrook

Slim Loyale is paroled from prison after serving 18 months for a crime he did not commit. He returns to his Circle L ranch to find his father dead and sinister forces at work, trying to make him violate his parole so that he can again be railroaded to prison. The Brockwells and their gang are plotting to gain possession of Circle L ranch and the property of Mona Hall, a neighbor and lifelong friend of Slim Loyale. Slim discovers that Sheriff Starbuck has joined the plot against him. With the help of Dakota Blue and his cowboys, Slim Loyale defies the land-grabbers to do CHAPTER XIX "I say yes," exploded Tisdale. "I got money in my poke an' the boys down in Jericho Valley have authorized me to act for the whole crowd. Let's go an' see the young

That night, behind locked door and shuttered windows, three men met in heated argument in George Arthur's office. Arthur himself was again nervously pacing back and forth, while Sarg Brockwell and Jigger Starbuck occupied Tisdale, the Big Bend representative, raved like a wild man when I told him it would cost him and the others a dollar a head to cross the range, but they'll pay in the end. They'll have to, and they know it.

"But now Loyale is going to loan Miss Hall money enough to pay me. We've got to stop that one way to do it. I've told you how. We'd be better off if we had the Circle L too, but we simply gotta get the Dot H to get any oney outa this deal People Are On Edge
"It's a pretty stiff deal yo're

OFFSETTING WINTER'S

Winter can play havoc with our looks, and an ounce of precaution is better than suffering a red nose, blue lips and coarse, chapped hands!

Many winter worries are due to a poor circulation. If you suffer from this complaint, get down to a daily routine of exercise. After your bath, sprinkle eau-de-Cologne on your hands and rub yourself down vigorously. Here is a special morning "bath" which will give you a good send-off for the day. Stand in a foot or so of hot water and give yourself a quick sponge-down with water as hot as you can stand it. Next, still standing in the hot water, rub yourself down with a cold sponge. t takes some courage, but is well worth it! Scrub yourself with a turkish towel, then finish off with a rough linen towel. Hands are a sore point in cold weather. Wash them in lukewarm water; never hot nor cold. If your hands roughen easily, add a few drops of glycerine to the water. To avoid chapping, rub vaseline over them before going out, and if they are already chapped, instead of washing the hands with soap, use a paste of fine oatmeal and vase-

Now for your nose! When you have a spare moment, pinch your nose from tip to bridge, then start over again. If you nose still gets pinkish, bathe it now and then with a five-per-cent, solution of alum and To keep the lips from chapping,

WINTER DESSERTS By Katharine Baker

There is no dessert problem in a summertime with fresh fruits available but it sometimes does assume the proportions of a prob-lem during the winter. Because the main courses of winter meals are usually heavier and take more time to prepare, let the desserts be light, simple and easy to digest. For this purpose, winter fruits and a tin of coconut, tender, fresh and meaty-preferably "southern style" can be kept on hand. The following recipes will show how easy and delicious coconut desserts can be.

Coconut Tumble bananas, diced Juice of 1 orange Juice of 1 lemon can coconut, southern style 4 tablespoons sugar Combine bananas, fruit juice, conut, and sugar. Pile in sherbet glasses. Chill. Serves 4. Hot Pineapple Ambrosia

s slices canned pineapple, diced halves canned apricots, diced 1 can coonut, southern style cup maple flavoured syrup 2 tablespoons lemon juice Arrange layer of ineapple and apricot in baking dish, sprinkle with coconut, repeat until all fruit is used. Pour on syrup and lemon uice and top with last of coconut. F.) 20 minutes, or until mixture i heated and delicately browned Serve hot. Serves 6. Coconut Apricot Fluff

Add 1/2 cup powdered sugar to cups stewed apricots, cut int quarters; fold in 1/2 cup cream, whipped, and 1/4 can coconut, sou thern style. Chill. Serve in sherbet glasses and sprinkle with another 1/4 can coconut. This may also be used as filling for tart shells. Serves 6. Coconut Banana Snow Combine 3 bananas, cut in small pieces, 1/2 cup powdered sugar, and teaspoons lemon juice. Force through sieve and chill. Fold the chilled fruit mixture into stiffly beaten egg white; then fold in 1/2 cup cream, whipped and 1/2 car conut, southern style. Serves Snowy Fruit Mounds

Allow two slices plain or sponge cake, or two flat cookies for each serving. Put slices together, covering tops with sweetened crushed berries, or pineapple; sliced apricots, peaches or bananas; or sections of oranges, free from membrane. Pour fruit juice over fruit as needed. Sprinkle southern style coconut generously over each lay er. Garnish with whipped cream around base, if desired.
