Town Hall Filled For Talking Film

Free Show Sponsored by McCarter and Duncan, International Harvester Agents.

Over three hundred and fifty people filled the Town Hall last Wednesday evening to see the free talking pictures presented by the International Harvester Co. in the Jarvis district.

The pictures related chiefly to the products of the International Harvester Co. and were very interesting to the farmer audience present.

Mr. R. A. McCarter was chairman of the evening's entertainment and introduced Mr. Donald Kintree who addressed the gathering.

Mr. Mahood, Sales Promotion Manager of the Hamilton District, was also present and conducted the presentation of the pictures.

Mr. Mahood congratulated McCarter and Duncan in carrying the large stock of repairs of any agency in the Hamilton District.

He also congratulated the farmers of the district for their prompt payments on purchases.

Myrtle Haro, daughter of Mr. Haro, recited at the Ward-Price Galleries, Toronto, on Saturday evening, chose a beautifully unobscured program, revealing it with fine taste and considerable skill.

The quality of her mezzo-contralto, a type of voice from which one does not expect brilliance any more than one does from a viola, was yet so richly warm and appealing and her capture of varying moods so intelligently genuine that her large and distinguished audience was most enthusiastic, much applause being given as well as many flowers.

Early career of Miss Carl Looe as "Eri-kong" (powerfully done), German numbers songs by modern Canadian and English composers, and some miscellaneous pieces were presented in agreeably contrasted progression.

At the United Church Cottage Prayer Meeting at Garnet.

Under the direction of the Season of Garnet United Church, a Cottage Prayer Meeting was held last Friday night at the Howard Harrop home, when over twenty people gathered for prayer and discussion in an effort to deepen the religious life of the community.

Sponsored by the Adult Bible Class of the Sunday School, the prayer meeting is one of a series of home visits in the various homes in the community with an organization of the Church in charge.

Under the direction of the Stewards, the next meeting will be held at the home of Willis Harrop tonight.

DIED HODGSON—At the home of his son-in-law in Hamilton, on Tuesday, February 17, 1939, Alfred Hodgson.

The funeral was held from Brown Bros. Funeral Home, Friday, February 10th. Interment was made in St. Paul's Church Cemetery, Jarvis.

Obituary

THE LATE MISS MARGARET WILLIAMSON, ABERNETHY

An Appreciation

It was with deep regret that the residents in Abernethy and district heard of the death of Miss Margaret Williamson, Oshawa.

A daughter of the late John Williamson of Chumby, she was for many years identified with the life of the Abernethy district.

Long before the institution of nursing associations, Miss Williamson gave her services voluntarily in the district.

When it was proposed to set up a local Nursing Association, she gave her wholehearted support to the idea.

When it was set on foot, she was appointed its president. Later on, when by reason of enfeebled health, she withdrew from active duty, she was made honorary president, and she ever sustained a lively interest in the work of the Association.

A ROVING REPORTER LOOKS AT LIFE

"ONE BORN EVERY MINUTE"

If there is one thing which amazes this roving Reporter it is the way the "genus homo" loves to be fooled. Phineas T. Barnum, the great American showman, recognized that fact and gave out his press in a classic phrase, when he remarked, "There's a sucker born every minute."
