Salvation Army Head's Successor

May Be Commissioner John McMillan, Well-Known in Canada — To Succeed Gen. Evangeline Booth

The name of Commissioner John McMillan, chief of staff of the International Salvation Army, has been mentioned several times lately as the possible successor to General Evangeline Booth as general of the Salvation Army. Commissioner McMillan is well known throughout Canada. He started his career in the Salvation Army in Toronto some 50 years ago. He was on the Canadian Territorial headquarters staff for some time and 1896 went to Australia as private secretary to the commissioner.

Known to Canadians During the Great War he was in Canada again as chief secretary. Later he was transferred to the United States where he was in charge of the Chicago Territory. Another transfer took him to New York, the biggest Salvation Army area in this continent.

Then he was made a commissioner for the Canadian territory, which includes Bermuda, Alaska, and Newfoundland.

Q. How can I mend broken china?
A. Stir plaster of Paris into the beaten white of an egg, to the consistency of paste. Apply this to the broken edges and allow to harden thoroughly.

Q. How can I remedy soup that is too salty?
A. Add two or three pinches of brown sugar to the soup. This will remove the salty taste, but will not sweeten the soup.

Q. How can I avoid getting rough hands on washdays?
A. Add a few drops of vinegar to the rinsing water on washdays, and it will help prevent the hands from becoming rough.

Q. How can I make a good butter receptacle?
A. A large-mouthed, bottle is a great improvement over the customary butter box, by taping the bottle around the desired butter can often be found at a glance without emptying the entire contents.

Q. How can I remove water stains from furniture?
A. Use a tablespoon of powdered pumice, mixed with enough lard to make a thin paste. Rub on the spots until they disappear. Then wipe off with a cloth dampened in polish.

Teacher turned away from the blackboard, where she had been writing "Read out that sentence, Willie," she said.

"He was bent on seeing his old school," "New children," cooled teacher, "I was you all to paraphrase that sentence."

Checking his gun, Willie regarded the blackboard. Then his face lit up. Busily he wrote: "The sight of the old school doubled him up."

Sports Done On Wood The remedy proved to be the wood. The scientists found that yards must be kept clear of decayed wood, mill sweepings and other sources of insects.

Seasoning Yards Must Be Kept Clear Of Old Decayed Wood And Other Sources Of Infection.

When an unalloyed blue stain in sawn lumber causes losses of thousands of dollars to Canadian lumbermen through lost sales, the forest products laboratories of the Dominion Mines and Resources Department tracked the nuisance down to a minute fungus.

Wine-borne spores, investigators found, germinated in the summer months on the moist surface of the log yards. The thrushy growths all worked deep into the lumber as it dried and produce the dark, tell-tale stain.

Sunday School Lesson

LESSON IX PETER IN SAMARIA

Certain Text—Come ye, buy and eat ye, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. This is generally believed to be a text which was written in that year that the preaching of Philip in Samaria took place.

In the midst of the province of Samaria, in which we may call central Palestine. Philip was there when Peter was bitterly persecuting the early church in Jerusalem. The martyrdom of Stephen seemed to have gained into a better flame than the fire of the faith. After the death of Stephen there arose the great persecutions of the apostolic church, Saul of Tarsus, who later was to be the greatest of all the defenders of the faith.

So often revivals are the cause of sharp words of unjust criticism, and sometimes of public rebuke. This great work of Philip in Samaria before not appearing in these revival circles, if allowed his way, would have wrought great havoc in the ranks of the Christian faith in that city.

From the Mother Church New when the apostles that were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God they sent unto them Peter and John. This verse shows that the church at Jerusalem was re-organized in the name of the Lord Jesus. The apostles did not come down to confer with them; they did come down especially to catechize; they did not come down to preach, but they did come down to impart the enrichment of the lives of these young Christians.

Then laid they their hands upon them, and they received the Holy Spirit. This experience of the Samaritans was exceptional, and it is intended to teach that, as missionaries, we are to impart the Holy Spirit to those who are converted. This is the true conversion, not the conversion which is attended by no outward signs.

Now when Simon saw that the Holy Spirit was given by the laying on of the hands, he offered them money, saying, Give me this power also, that whosoever I lay my hands upon, he may receive the Holy Spirit. This experience of the Samaritans was exceptional, and it is intended to teach that, as missionaries, we are to impart the Holy Spirit to those who are converted. This is the true conversion, not the conversion which is attended by no outward signs.

Simon's attitude is that of a proselyte. This experience of the Samaritans was exceptional, and it is intended to teach that, as missionaries, we are to impart the Holy Spirit to those who are converted. This is the true conversion, not the conversion which is attended by no outward signs.

Former Czech President Comes To This Continent

Wearing a broad smile, Dr. Edouard Benes, former president of Czechoslovakia, is shown here with Mrs. Benes as they arrived in New York. Dr. Benes took up his duties as a visiting professor to the University of Chicago on Feb. 20.

Really good yet simple meals are few and far between in Ontario's roadside eating places and there is undoubtedly much more room for improvement in this essential respect, says the Brockville Recorder and Times.

Who can show a tourist the best of roads over which to travel, furnish him with the means of entertaining and enjoying himself, but if we fall down in such things as the meals we serve him and the beds that we ask him to occupy, his holiday will be spoiled and he may leave our country with bitter and disappointed feelings.

For some years the provision of better meals for tourists and other visitors has been part of Governmental activity in such provinces as Quebec and Nova Scotia, where it is realized that the way to a tourist's heart is as much through his food as through anything else.

It is his broadcast from Laurier on Sunday, February 25, at 2 p.m. On that date the entire Maple Key of RCA will be devoted to Paderewski's playing of Chopin's Op. 25, No. 10.

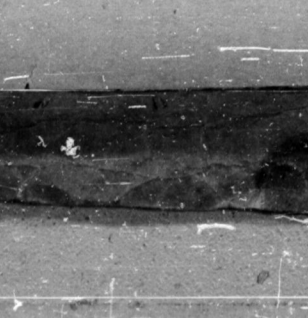

Paderewski arrived in New York on Tuesday, February 21, by the Ile de France, to begin his 20th concert tour of North America. He made his debut on this continent 47 years ago.

For many years Paderewski did not favor radio and refused consistently to "record." He consented, however, in September, and his music heard at the height of the crisis, came from Europe like a voice of peace in the midst of the noise of war.

Paderewski's last composition was his Symphony in A minor describing the tragic fate of his native Poland and hinting prophetically of his resurrection. The Symphony was performed in Boston in 1909. Ten years later Paderewski was the first Prime Minister of Poland. Last year he published his autobiography.

China Gets Ready For Long Conflict

China is building a new nation in the comparatively undeveloped interior beyond immediate reach of Japanese forces, utilizing credit extended here by Great Britain and the United States.

Well-informed persons, who disclosed this week for the first time what China was doing with the money which records the financial work of these two missions and their return to Jerusalem, three different phrases indicating their preaching activity. In the first place, they "testified," which is the translation of a Greek word meaning to give solemn testimony to some great fact, to cause it to be believed. The second phrase "spoke the word of the Lord," would certainly indicate that they believed that they were proclaiming divine truth a message given to them by the Lord and concerning the Lord. The last phrase, "preached the gospel," comes from the word "evangelize," and so this last phrase could read, "evangelized in many villages of the Samaritans."

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

ASTRONOMERS BELIEVE THAT THE SOLAR SYSTEM IN GENERAL WAS FORMED ABOUT 2 1/2 BILLION YEARS AGO.

THE WORDS "FERTILIZATION" AND "POLLINATION" FREQUENTLY ARE USED TO DENOTE THE SAME THING. MANY STUDENTS OF BOTANY, HOWEVER, RESTRICT "POLLINATION" TO THE PLACING OF POLLEN ON THE STIGMA WITH "FERTILIZATION" AS THE ACTION OF THE POLLEN AFTER IT REACHES THE STIGMA.

OUR ears of today have little use as sound catchers, since they are too flat, but once, when man's life depended on his ability to hear the approach of other animals, he could turn them in different directions, just as a horse does. Today the muscles that made this possible, although still present, are useless.
